

U. S. WINS, LONDON PARLEY WILL CONTINUE

• Majors Clash In 'Diamond Battle Of Century'

MONETARY, TARIFF MATTERS EXCLUDED

RUTH WALLOPS FIRST HOMER OF TILT WITH 1 ON

Wild Bill Hallahan and Lefty Gomez Start On Mound

CROWDER, WARNEKE CALLED IN THIRD

Nationals baffled in Early Innings By Rival Pitching

BULLETIN
(By Associated Press)
With Bob Grove on the firing line for the last three innings, American League all-stars secured a 4-2 victory over National league players at Chicago this afternoon.

COMISKY PARK, CHICAGO. July 6.—Baseball's dream game came true at Comisky park today as the hand picked ace of the major leagues clashed in the first all star contest in the Great American game's history before a roaring capacity crowd of 49,000.

Not a cloud streaked the skies as the throng started trooping into the park hours before game time.

The National League stars, attired in natty uniforms with the insignia "National League" printed across their shirt fronts, arrived first. The American leaguers wore travel uniforms of white.

FIRST INNING
NATIONALS—Martin grounded out, Cronin to Gehrig. Frisch was out the same way. Klein flied to Cronin. No runs, no hits, no errors.

AMERICANS—Cronin was thrown out by Martin. Gehrig walked. The crowd roared as Babe Ruth strode to the plate but the Babe, after watching Hallahan throw three straight balls, struck out. Gehrig stole second. Gehrig grounded out, Terry to Hallahan, who covered first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

SECOND INNING
NATIONALS—Hafey singled. Terry singled to left, Hafey stopping at second. Berger lined to Dykes who threw to Gehrig and doubled Terry off first. Bartell struck out. No runs, two hits, no errors.

AMERICANS—Simmons flied to Berger. Dykes walked. Cronin also walked. Rick Ferrell flied to Klein. Gomez singled to short left, Dykes scoring. Chapman forced Gomez, Bartell to Frisch. One run, two hits, no errors.

THIRD INNING
NATIONALS—Dykes threw out Jimmy Wilson. Simmons made a fine catch of Hallahan's long drive to right center. Martin flied to Cronin. No runs, no hits, no errors.

AMERICANS—Gehrig walked again. Ruth, with the count one and one, hoisted one of Hallahan's slants into lower right stands for a home run. Gehrig drew a walk and Hallahan was sent to the showers. (Continued on Page 8)

TEMPERATURES

SALEM WEATHER REPORT

Yesterday noon	77
Yesterday, 6 p. m.	75
Midnight	68
Today, a. m.	52
Today, noon	79
Maximum	86
Minimum	41

Year Ago Today	80
Maximum	80
Minimum	62

NATION WIDE REPORTS

City	8 a. m.	Yes	Max
Atlanta	68 clear	75
Boston	68 clear	63
Buffalo	68 clear	76
Chicago	70 part cloudy	78
Cincinnati	68 clear	84
Cleveland	68 clear	78
Columbus	68 clear	78
Denver	68 clear	78
Detroit	70 part cloudy	81
El Paso	78 cloudy	82
Kansas City	74 clear	83
Los Angeles	60 cloudy	76
Miami	78 cloudy	84
New Orleans	78 clear	80
New York	70 clear	78
Pittsburgh	64 part cloudy	80
Portland, Ore.	54 clear	80
St. Louis	75 part cloudy	90
San Francisco	52 cloudy	60
Tampa	76 cloudy	84
Wash'tn, D. C.	70 clear	84

Yesterday's High
Phoenix, part cloudy	106
Ablene, cloudy	100
San Antonio, clear	98

Today's Low
Edmonton, clear	46
Calgary, part cloudy	44
Northfield, part cloudy	48

"Date" With Post

Miss Fay Gillis, 23-year-old aviatrix of Minneapolis, Minn., who will meet Wiley Post in Novo-Sibirsk, Russia, and fly with him on the remainder of his round-the-world trip. Miss Gillis is the daughter of an engineer now working in Moscow.

MASONS TO HOLD PICNIC JULY 20

350 Are Expected to Attend Fete at Centennial Park

Approximately 350 are expected to attend the picnic of Associated Masonic bodies of Salem, the Eastern Star, and their families, which will be held Thursday afternoon and evening, July 20, at Centennial park.

Arrangements for the outing were completed at a meeting of committee members last night at the Masonic temple.

A sports program will be under way at 3 p. m., followed by children's events, including races, contests, games, etc., from 4 to 5.

A ball game, in charge of Joseph Reese, is scheduled for 5 o'clock and a basket supper will follow at 6. Ice cream, coffee and cream will be furnished to the picnickers.

Following supper there will be a sports program for adults, in charge of Albert Wright, Mrs. James Hill will supervise the children's events and Mrs. W. G. Aldom is chairman of the supper committee. George Lezier is general chairman.

WHITE AWAIT'S NEW TAX SETUP

Important Measures Will Get Final Touches Next Monday

BY H. H. DAUGHERTY,
Associated Press Staff Writer
COLUMBUS, O., July 6.—More than two dozen important measures will be given the final touches of legislative enactment next Monday and sent to Governor White. The batch includes the senate's taxation program for relief and schools and other measures passed during the last days of the legislative session before it ended its six-months session last Sunday morning.

Monday the presiding officers, with a few members of each house will meet in a perfunctory session at which they will sign the measures. Then some one will move adjournment, ending the session officially.

Cooperate with U. S.
Probably for equal importance to the taxation program are the three bills designed to enable the state and its political subdivisions to cooperate in the fullest extent with the federal government in carrying out the purpose of the national recovery act.

One of these amends the Valentine anti-trust law to permit Ohio corporations in the same industry to enter into trade agreements, as

(Continued on Page 5)

Knights Templar Install Tuesday

Salem commandery, No. 42, Knights Templar, will install officers at a meeting next Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple, East State st.

The new officers of the commandery are: Commander, Wilbur Hafley; captain general, F. J. Eckstein; generalissimo, Paul Summer-

CITY'S RELIEF LIST IS PARED BY 100 FAMILIES

Striking Reduction In Welfare Needs Cited By Committee

MORE MEN GIVEN THEIR JOBS BACK

Continued Improvement In District Is Hoped For

Fathers and sons are being called back to their old jobs with the result that gradually the list of families dependent on municipal and civic welfare organizations for relief is being decreased.

The improvement in industrial conditions in Salem is reflected today in a report of the municipal unemployment relief commission, headed by Safety Director John R. Kerr, that, in the last month, there has been a decrease of more than 100 in the number of families provided relief by local welfare units.

Down to 495 Now
Where three months ago as many as 604 families were receiving aid from the Red Cross and municipal commission, this number now has decreased to 495. Three hundred of these are provided food, medical aid and other necessities by the city while 195 receive flour and clothing from the Red Cross.

A continued decrease in the relief lists is hoped for by welfare workers.

They reported also that a better spirit of optimism and hopefulness prevails among indigent families as a direct result of better business and industrial conditions.

Increases in salaries or wages have been granted workers in at least 128 local factories while all manufacturing plants continue to report that "things are getting better."

E. M. Lowry, secretary of the county relief commission, announced that Salem's decrease in indigent families is the largest registered in the county.

He reported also that a marked decrease has resulted in the number of families on the county's relief list, stating that, where in March 5,280 were provided aid in various ways, this number has been cut to approximately 4,250.

County Funds Decreased
LISBON, July 6.—The state relief commission has allowed this county $34,334 for July relief purposes, which is a reduction of seven percent from the initial request. In addition, $5,000 more has been deducted, this being explained by reason of the fact that $10,000 gasoline tax money would be received by the county for distribution to different taxing districts on or about July 15.

The order for a reduction of seven percent went into effect July 1, and it has been claimed by authorities that increased employment would lessen the amount of the appropriation for relief purposes. While it is admitted that the relief load is being gradually lessened, because of increased employment, it cannot be determined at the moment what the appropriation for this county will be for August.

County Mortgage Group Reviews 40 Cases In 3 Months

More than 40 cases have been brought before the Columbus County Farm and Home Protective committee in the three months since it was appointed by Governor White. The committee has been meeting in the courtroom in Lisbon on each Monday night, but hereafter meetings will be held only on the last Monday night of each month. Persons having mortgage problems may interview members of the committee at any time.

Members of the committee are: W. H. Hepburn and Lodge Riddle, Lisbon; Ed. F. Stratton, Salem; Charles W. Hendershot and J. J. Purinton, E. Liverpool; Willard J. Hayes, Kensington; J. C. Pottorff, Salem; Lewis J. Kirk, Columbiana; H. J. Hagey, Wellsview.

The purpose of the committee as stated in the appointment from Governor White is to give advice and counsel to persons needing assistance in farm and home mortgage difficulties. In several cases foreclosure actions have been delayed by the committee to give the mortgagor an opportunity to refinance his farm or home mortgage with one of the government loans.

Attorney Is Back

BUCYRUS, O., July 6.—George W. Coburn, well known Crestline attorney, returned to his home yesterday after having been missing for a week.

Friends said he left his car at Bellefontaine, Ohio, and hitch hiked to Anderson, Ind. A tourist camp operator there notified Mrs. Coburn of his presence.

Slapstick Is O. K.—But Not at Home

Thus Oliver Hardy's Wife Complains In Suit For Divorce

(By Associated Press)
LOS ANGELES, July 6.—Oliver Hardy, he of the damp forehead bangs of the comedy screen, carried his slapstick comedy into the house—but in no slapstick comedy vein—his wife complained in a cross action in superior court to the actor's divorce suit.

In her complaint, filed yesterday, she said Oliver dropped no less than $30,000 in one day by wagering on the bang-bangs at Agua Caliente, border resort, and once appeared at his home with a friend, both with shotguns, to wait out the night as the aftermath of a slapping episode with his sister-in-law on the receiving end.

Mrs. Hardy wants a divorce and $1,400 monthly alimony, not counting $4,000 in attorney's fees. She provided a peek into the comedian's income by alleging that his earnings exceed $8,000 a month. She listed their community property at $100,000.

The sister-in-law who got slapped—Mrs. Hardy deposes—has fled a suit against Hardy for $50,000 to compensate for damages suffered.

The cross complaint mentions a blonde who seems to have been the subject of a little sleuthing by operatives for Mrs. Hardy to determine what part she played in the comic's life.

Hardy's teammate on the screen, Stan Laurel, also is in court, defendant in a divorce suit.

WANDERER SAYS HE'S MINSTREL

"Amnesia" Victim May Be Given Insanity Test Here

While plans were under way to conduct a sanity inquest for John Delaney, at first believed to be an amnesia victim, city and county authorities today are attempting to locate relatives of the man, claimant to be from Long Beach and Los Angeles, Calif.

Delaney, aged 40, and his pretty, curly-haired blonde daughter, two years old, were still "guests" at city hall while the probe was continued, in charge of Prosecuting Attorney George Lafferty and Police Chief Ralph Stoffer, Assistant Prosecutor Frank Springer was also here today in connection with the case.

The man told police this morning that he is a singer, formerly a member of the DeMont Minstrels, and repeated his story that his wife and an older daughter were killed in the California earthquake at Long Beach on Mar. 19. His mind is said by police to have cleared somewhat, and they said he was able to tell them his name and some accounts of himself last night.

He entertained authorities with songs this morning and later, when he refused to answer questions and became abusive with Probation Officer J. M. McCready of East Palestine, was lodged in city jail. Questioning was to be continued this afternoon, Stoffer said.

Telegram to California authorities, asking them to trace Delaney's relatives through the license plates were mailed this morning.

Farm Bureau Plans Outdoor Program

The annual outdoor meeting of the Butler-Perry Farm bureau will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday, July 11, at Westville lake.

"Beautifying the Home Grounds During Depression", will be discussed by Webb Mulford of Salem.

"The Marketing of Fruits and Vegetables" will also be one of the topics discussed.

Special music and the reading of the Farm Bureau paper, "The Bugle," will be additional features of the outdoor program.

Leads C. E. Meet
Miss Mildred Coburn was leader at a meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of Greenford Christian church held Wednesday evening. The topic was "Our Conscience—How to Teach and Train It." Part of the program consisted of reports on missions.

The topic for the next meeting will be "The Exploited African."

Schmeling, Actress Wed In Berlin

(By Associated Press)
BERLIN, July 6.—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight champion of the world, and Miss Anna Ondra, screen and musical comedy actress, were married in a civil ceremony at the Charlottenburg city hall today.

Their honeymoon will be at Heiligendamm. A religious celebration of the marriage will be conducted later at Saarnow, where Schmeling resides.

Max, at the wheel of his own car, was cheered by a large crowd at the city hall. He wore a blue sack suit. His bride wore a rose-colored dress.

The bridegroom's trainer, Max Machon, was a man. Schmeling returned to Germany June 14 after losing a fight to Max Baer in New York.

Salem Forester Helps Wage Battle With Woods Flames

Thrilling experiences resulting from his first encounter with a forest fire are told by Michael Yakubek, of Salem, a member of the U. S. reforestation camp at Miller Canyon, near Crestline, Calif., in a letter to The News today.

The fire, Yakubek relates, broke out in a wooded area three miles from the camp, with smoke slowly drifting over a mountain peak as the youthful foresters rushed to headquarters to receive orders and gather for a battle against the fury.

Forest rangers ordered a group of 15 men to the fire, he tells. All but two of the 15 were Ohioans.

"The usual clang of fire engines was missing as the boys rushed to the scene of the blaze, swinging mattocks and double edged axes on trees and bushes about the flaming area," the Salem forester writes.

More than an acre of forest property was destroyed.

30 CONVICTS IN ARMED MUTINY

National Guards Called Out To Halt Florida Outbreak

(By Associated Press)
BROOKSVILLE, Fla., July 6.—National guardsmen hurried to Toke lake prison camp today in a determined attempt to smash an armed mutiny.

Striking convicts, numbering about 30 and described by jailors as "bad actors", were barricaded in the stockade and armed with matches, knives, clubs and bottles. They have defied prison authorities since Tuesday noon.

Civilian authorities predicted "real trouble" in storming the stockade. Sheriff Law he thought the convicts may have killed one of their number, possibly for attempting to desert.

The prisoners have smashed a sweat box and ignored demands for submission.

Commissioner Nathan Mayo, in charge of the prison system, said the strike apparently was started by convicts disgruntled because the pardon board failed to act favorably on pleas for clemency.

Six Are Obligated By Perry Grange

Six candidates for membership were obligated in the first and second degrees at a meeting of Perry grange held Wednesday evening at the hall, Franklin rd.

Members of Mt. Nebo and Perry granges will furnish entertainment at a meeting of Yellow Creek grange tonight.

Times Are Changed
SANDUSKY, O., July 6.—Times have changed in Homeville since the advent of 32 beer. Subject of much investigation and scene of many raids following reports some time back that residents of the Soldiers and Sailors' home were buying liquor in Homeville, the town yesterday saw its first two liquor law arrests since beer was legalized.

Change Grange Date
LISBON, July 6.—On account of a change in the date of the grange both program, a meeting of the grange tax committee has been scheduled at Mt. Nebo Grange hall the evening of July 17. This group session was previously arranged for the evening of July 15.

Decision to Continue Conference Comes After Furious Battle and Is Victory For Cordell Hull

COMMITTEE WILL DRAFT PROGRAM

Leading Economic Questions, Save Those Barred, Will Be Lined Up by Committees For Discussion

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, July 6.—The world economic conference will continue but monetary and tariff matters will be excluded, the steering committee of the parley decided this evening.

The decision came after a furious battle and was a victory for Cordell Hull, American secretary of state who, on instruction from President Roosevelt, had stoutly insisted the conclave must continue its attempt to solve pressing world problems.

France and other members of the European gold bloc advocated formal conclusion for the major activities of the conference.

Session Is Brief
The morning session of the steering committee lasted three hours and a half but was unable to arrive at a decision. The evening session, however, was comparatively brief, ending in triumph for the American position.

In the meantime a drafting committee, of which Secretary Hull was a member, had been at work on a proposed program of future activities for the parley.

The conference therefore will continue in session for the discussion of economic questions, except tariffs.

The agenda for the conclave thus was substantially modified from its original form when the conference met June 12.

Statement Issued
An official communique issued on behalf of the steering committee said:

"Believing that the bureau (steering committee) is firmly convinced that the work of the conference should be carried on to all possible extent and as rapidly as circumstances and in view of recent circumstances that countries on gold find themselves obliged to declare that they cannot take part for the moment in any monetary questions, 'The bureau is in unanimous accord that,

"First, every sub-committee should meet as soon as possible to make up a list of questions on which discussion can be carried on with most useful results,

"Second, to meet as soon as reports of sub-committees have been received in order to make recommendations for the arrangements which ought to be made for the future work of the conference."

U. S. Warns Against Undue Increases In Price of Bread

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Prosecution of persons profiteering in bread will be inaugurated by the department of justice as soon as conclusive evidence of the action is obtained.

Attorney General Cummings said today he was studying complaints laid before him by Secretary Waller that plans had been made to unduly increase the price of bread, in various sections of the country.

Bakers in some instances have said the proposed wheat processing tax was responsible for the contemplated increase.

Cummings said that after going over all of the data he would issue a public statement as to his attitude and that it would be followed by action against profiteers, if any were found.

He declined to indicate just what the action would be but said it would be determined and designed to break up any practice of increasing prices more than justified by the tax.

Lisbon's Schools Will Open Sept. 18

LISBON, July 7.—The fall term of the Lisbon public schools will open Sept. 18, next, it was announced today by George C. Porter, secretary of the board.

Heretofore the term opened immediately following Labor day. The term will continue, it is declared, as long as financial conditions of the board will permit.

Wages Restored To 1,800 Steel Workers

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 6.—Restoration July 1 of a wage cut in force since early this year was announced by the Sharon Steel Hoop company, and its subsidiary, the Youngstown Pressed Steel company.

The cut amounted to about 15 to 20 per cent below the basic rates in the steel industry for this district. The move affects approximately 1,800 men in Lowellville and Warren, Ohio, and Sharon, Pa.

Will Rogers
(Copyright, 1933 McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

THE SALEM NEWS
A BRUCE-MOORE NEWSPAPER
Established in 1899

PUBLISHED every afternoon except Sundays by The Salem Publishing Co., 61 E. State St., Salem, Ohio.

BY CARRIER, per week, 13 cents; BY MAIL—in Ohio, one year $2.00; one month, 50c, payable in advance; Outside of Ohio, one year $4.50, one month 75c, payable in advance.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS—The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it, and not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

MEMBER Select List of Ohio Newspapers.

MEMBER Audit Bureau of Circulations.

TELEPHONES
BUSINESS OFFICE—1009
EDITORIAL ROOMS—1302 and 1003

JOHN W. CULLEN CO.
National Representative
ASTORIA OFFICE—501 Fifth Avenue, New York
DETROIT OFFICE—General Motors Bldg., Detroit
CHICAGO OFFICE—8 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago

Entered at Salem Postoffice as Second Class Matter.

BASEBALL SHADOWS
Predicting major league baseball outcomes by the standings of the teams on the Fourth of July is about as dependable as letting the groundhog's antics set rules for the weather. It has a fair chance of working. If it doesn't, no one has any reason to complain.

This year, the Giants and the Senators were leading their leagues when the Fourth of July dawned. The place of the Giants was assured for the day, win or lose. The Senators, on the other hand, had a "fast deal" at stake. Scheduled for a double header with the Yankees, they either could pile up a better lead or give up first place to the champions.

There is a certain amount of significance in the fact that they were able to take both games from the team which everyone had picked to lead home the American league field in a walk. True, the Yankees have been in a slump and the Senators have been playing spectacular ball after a slow start. But it takes class to turn in a double victory over the Yankees, slump or winning streak. The Washington team, apparently, has what it takes.

In a year when a good race was essential to the business men of baseball, the Yankees have done everything possible. In the National league, the leader is only a few more than a dozen games ahead of the last-place team. St. Louis, in second place, is five games behind and the other teams follow with not more than two games difference in any instance.

In the American league, the race is strictly between the Senators and Yankees. However, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit are fighting hard for inclusion in the first division. Not to be overlooked, furthermore, is once losing Boston, 16 games behind the leader, and less than five games behind the leading contender for third place.

Thus it stands. Those who remember that back in 1914 the Boston Braves were in humble last place on the Fourth and were world's champions in October will be well content to accept the traditional prediction—but with a liberal sprinkling of salt. Anything can happen in baseball—and frequently does.

THE DAY AFTER
The casualty list for America's observance of the Fourth of July, 1933, will contain approximately 200 names by the time the full extent of the damage is known. Using the census bureau's latest estimate of the national population, 200 deaths represents a mortality of .0000016 per cent for the holiday.

Approximately 85 deaths were caused by automobile accidents, a figure that seems large until compared with an average of 80 deaths every day during the year 1932. There were only less than 10 known deaths from fireworks, compared with 10 last year and totals of many scores only a few years ago.

In other words, the remarkable thing about this national holiday which inevitably is followed by a reaction against the lives it claims is its comparative safety. That close to 200 people were killed is tragic; that precaution can limit the total to so small a proportion is amazing.

It is safe to say that at least seven out of every 10 Americans went somewhere sometime during Independence day. Movements of traffic were complicated immensely by the simultaneous appearance on the road of thousands of automobiles which would have been idle under normal circumstances.

Pleasure resorts and beaches were crowded to capacity. Tens of thousands of people moved about in unfamiliar surroundings. Under the excitement of the holiday, they did things entirely outside their customary routines. In countless ways they demonstrated the human body's ability to take punishment and to meet unexpected demands on its flexible resources.

From a purely mechanical standpoint, 125,000,000 people cannot celebrate simultaneously without a certain amount of colliding and trampling. It is a physical impossibility; it would be even if they all moved on foot and without doing any of the things traditionally associated with celebration of the Fourth of July.

The nation properly regrets the deaths and accidents listed on the fifth of July. Just as properly, it might be congratulating itself that there were not many hundreds more.

What Others Say
SAY IT WITH PAPER
Everybody reads speeches off a paper nowadays. Whether it's too much like work to memorize one, or too much bother to deliver an address with gestures and moving about, seems hard to conjecture.

All the big shots have taken to reading their remarks off a paper as if they had been too busy to write the stuff themselves.

Fiercely orators who were as well worth watching as hearing, have evidently gone out with the incoming loud speaker.

Perhaps the next generation will never say anything from memory or ex tempore, but go around with everything written out in an indexed loose-leaf note book.

Tenants will read their rent defaults to a landlord of a memorandum.

After an automobile collision, the surviving parties will feel through their pockets to see what they have to say.

A fellow calling on a girl to make a proposal of marriage, may suddenly recall that he left it home and leave her lamenting.

If there are any famous last words, it will be something a man dashed off when he was feeling good; so they will have to hand it to him—while he's still living—Zanesville Times-Recorder.

The Stars Say:
For Friday, July 7
The lunar transits bearing rule on the affairs of this day assure much progress, profit and a general campaign of successful activities in fulfillment of the highest hopes and wishes. It is a time for pushing to the goal of the ambitious, with the assurance of assistance from employers with support, preferment and popularity with those in places of power and prestige. Negotiations with large corporations, secret bodies or through diplomatic channels should advance these propitious auguries. Banish petty anxieties.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year of the fulfillment of high hopes and wishes, either in the realm of employment or in large ventures calling for the good will and co-operation of those in high places, whose ready financial support may be depended upon. The fortunes may be stabilized through these friendly offices and hard work.

A child born on this day may be diligent, efficient, ambitious as well as popular and highly esteemed. It should reach noted position in life.

Notable nativity: Sir Morrell McKenzie, premier Canada.

Get Wendell Riches
Final settlement of long court battle over disposition of $40,000,000 estate of Miss Ella Wendell, aged New York reclus, in which 2,300 persons sought a share, brought some of the money to Mrs. Edw. Barney Irwin (top) and Mrs. Effie Barney Bush (below), Pacific Coast relatives fifth degree removed. Rosa Dew Stansbury, Vicksburg, Miss.; Grace B. McQuarrie, Oakland, Calif.; Hattie B. Simmons, Spokane, Wash., and heirs of Laura O. Harrison, Alameda, Calif., will divide $2,000,000. Rest of estate goes to charity.

Admiral Goes Native
When in Tokyo, Vice Admiral M. M. Taylor of the U. S. Asiatic Fleet, today as the Japanese do, as this photo of the shoeless admiral shows. It was taken at a formal reception for visiting American naval officers. Japanese etiquette requires removal of shoes on entering a home.

HEALTH
By Dr. Royal S. Copeland
New York City

MARASMUS IS CURABLE
Most of the diseases of childhood are due to germs or bacteria. Today I want to tell you about an ailment not caused by a germ. I refer to the disease called "marasmus."

It is sometimes referred to as "infantile atrophy," or "wasting." For many years little was known about this affliction because of the rapid advancement made in the study of nutrition and infant feeding. I am glad to say that the disease is now curable.

Marasmus is a wasting disease of infants and children. In spite of abundant food the sufferers from this ailment lose weight and have poor physical development. Some children are more susceptible to it than others. They are usually ones who are the offspring of parents with weakened constitutions and sufferers from chronic disorders.

Of course marasmus can be the result of lack of food. It can be traced to improper food and feeding. Chronic or localized infections, such as diseased teeth, tonsils and adenoids, poor eating and sleeping habits, lack of fresh air and sunshine, are other factors that must not be overlooked. It is commonly found in children who are the victims of tuberculosis and other serious constitutional diseases.

The emaciated appearance of a child with marasmus is indeed pathetic. Due to the marked loss of weight the child's skin is wrinkled and hangs in folds. The legs resemble drumsticks and the hands look like birds' claws. The child puts up in mind of a little shriveled-up old man. If you have ever seen a child suffering from this affliction you can appreciate the distressing picture I am trying to paint.

Since sufferers from marasmus require careful and prolonged care, I would advise that a child afflicted with this disease be taken to a hospital. There he will receive the proper nursing care, as well as medical treatment.

Let me assure the worried mother that the disease is not contagious and is not passed on from one child to another. If the child cannot be taken to a hospital, follow carefully the instructions given by your physician.

Diet Is Important
I urge upon you the importance of the diet. This should include adequate amounts of milk, fruits, green vegetables, eggs meat, cereals and bread. The food should not be forced upon the child, but he should be encouraged to eat, and taught to develop good food habits.

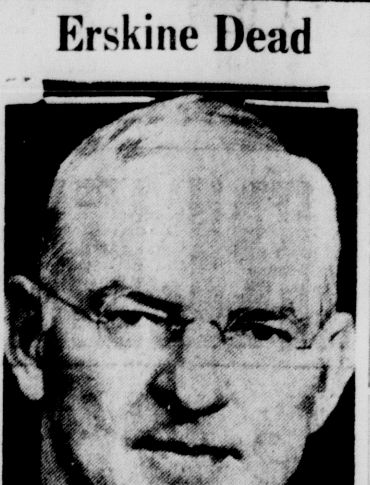

An adequate number of hours of sleep is imperative. A daily afternoon nap should be encouraged. Whenever possible, the child should be allowed to sleep outdoors, and be protected from cool and inclement weather. Plenty of fresh air, rest and sunlight, nourishing food and hygienic care lead to a rapid and successful recovery.

Marasmus, as I have mentioned, may be due to a chronic focal infection, such as diseased tonsils and adenoids. It is imperative that this focus of infection be removed if complete cure is to be hoped for. But it is not advisable to subject the child to an operation when he is in a rundown condition. This can wait till he is stronger.

Answers to Health Queries
Mrs. J. R. Q.—What do you advise for psoriasis?
A.—Send self-addressed stamped envelope for further particulars and repeat your question?

QUINCY, Mass.—Half of a double house here will be razed so the other half may be insured against fire. The building is a century old. John Foley could not insure his half, which has been modernized, because the other half, owned by John Rooney, was in bad repair. The compromise resulted.

Bargains are plentiful. The ads. will tell you where.

Erschine Dead
Albert Russell Erskine, president of the Studebaker corporation and one of the principal figures in the automotive industry, who shot and killed himself Saturday in his home at South Bend, Ind. Mr. Erskine, who was 62 years old, had been in failing health in recent months.

Twenty Years Ago
(Issue of July 6, 1913)
C. F. Leese, F. L. Stewart, D. L. Augustine and William Horne left the city Sunday afternoon for Foster, where they are attending the grand encampment of Odd Fellows and the grand council of Patriarchs Militant of Ohio.

J. A. Rich has sold his farm to Domenico Santimarine, who is an experienced man in truck and poultry business and will take possession in the near future.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The First-Second National bank of this city, one of the largest in the country, failed to open its doors this morning, having been ordered closed by Assistant Comptroller of Currency T. P. Kane.

Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, Lisbon, were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ella Switzer.

Frank Ross returned to his home in Mississippi after a visit with his sister, Mrs. Harry Izenour, Washington st.

Friends in this city and members of his flock during his pastorate at the Baptist church here from 1896 to 1898 have just learned that Weston college at Watertown, N. Y., has conferred upon Rev. Charles W. Fletcher the degree of Doctor of Divinity at the commencement exercises a few weeks ago.

Columbiana—Charles E. Smith, former treasurer of Columbiana county, who was overcome by taking an overdose of medicine a few days ago, is much improved today.

When a piece of lighted paper was thrown in the air by children playing at the home of Edward Kelley, East High st., late Saturday afternoon, a sudden gust of wind dropped the firebrand in a quantity of excelsior just inside the greenhouse door, and the whole interior was ablaze in a short time. The fire department quickly extinguished the fire, which did but slight damage.

Family On Relief.
Rookie Is A.W.O.L.
LISBON, July 6.—Service Director Dan D. Duty of Wellsville has made inquiry at the office of the county relief commission as to what to do with a family that has been on relief, after a member of that family, sent to a California Reformatory camp, went "A. W. O. L." for four days and then given an "unsatisfactory" discharge.

Edward M. Lewis, secretary of the county commission, was informed that the Wellsville recruit left camp for the reason there "too many horned toads and lizards."

Movie Romances Out of Tune?
While Hollywood is still gasping over reported rift in the marital lute of Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, comes another brace of shocks in the persistent rumors of stormy weather in the respective households of the Conrad Nagels (left) and the William Powells (right). The Nagels have been married 16 years. The Powells (she is Carole Lombard), were married in 1931.

New York Day by Day
By O. O. McINTYRE.

NEW YORK, July 6.—Brooklyn, more than Manhattan, is a paradise for the saunterer. It requires more bosomy adjectives than most writers command to pay tribute to the bright gusto of Flatbush avenue. Or to the exquisite serenity of Prospect Park in the gathering twilight.

No American city is less unburied by hurry. Brooklyn citizens have not outlived the term "trolley dodgers." Its restaurants retain the mellowness that suggest an elbow of cheese and a pewter of brown ale. One on Nostrand avenue, indeed, heralds: "Good books with meals."

An English writer returned home to write "Across the bridge is Brooklyn, mirth with drowsiness." Brooklynites might be resentful, but that is a description encompassing its charm, its sanctity. After a day of Manhattan's superb gesturing it must be magnificent to loiter on a Columbia Heights porch.

Shady open book-stalls in Brooklyn. And I found one blind alley, like a London news, lined with bookstalls for riding horses. Also a variety of old-fashioned green for bowling. Rows of dim, dusty houses, with enormous entrance halls and dining rooms facing the street in every yard a baby carriage!

One block of all alike brownstones near Fulton in Brooklyn displayed seven signs "Mid-Wife." Other signs proclaimed: "Rooms with use of bath." At most upstairs windows a refined white face. One of the innumerable with a chinchilla mind and a cony income—hobby! The work was delayed by dilly-dallying before a vanity mirror and two telephone calls to "George." It was also carelessly done and smeary. But what irritated me most, I think, was when departing she arched gushingly: "A pleasure to meet you Mr. McGinnis. I just love you on the radio." I see that stubby little finger nail—I just bit it smack off.

Thingumbobs: Jimmy Cagney does not drink, smoke or permit gace-crashing at his Hollywood home.... Mrs. Jack Whiting sits through her husband's play once a week during a run.... Lee Tracy tops all production records with 12 talkies in 14 months.... Marie Dressler is now the biggest box office draw.... Tommy Millard recently crossed the Atlantic three times in three weeks.... Nine Rolls cars were sold last week, in Manhattan, a record for two years.... Winnie Sheehan is the only stogie smoker among the cinema nabobs.... Dece Aylesworth got the nickname because his father was a deacon.... Francis Albert has the last letter "Tex" Rickard ever wrote.... Colin Clements and Florence Ryerson raise prize dachshunds.

Three celebrated New Yorkers, including a famous international banker, have a phobia about revolving doors and will not twirl through under any circumstance. Such a neurosis interested me. A neurologist over the phone tells me it is not uncommon in the metropolis. He has several patients so afflicted. There is only one cure. That is to keep whirling through revolving

"Gandhis" to Escape
Arthur Patumbo, survivor of notorious Vincent Goll gang of killers, fasted for weeks, squeezed himself through a 7 by 12 inch opening, picked two locks, slid to the ground on a rope of bed-sheets, and made his second getaway from the "escape-proof" prison at Eastview, N. Y.

The late Don Byrne used to flatter with the ipuses in crowds. That was why he finally fled to Ireland's open spaces. This morbid dread of confined places, known medically as claustrophobia, has been a frequent affliction of writers down the centuries from Shakespeare to Robert Louis Stevenson. A reverse malady is called agoraphobia—a fear of open spaces. The only writer I ever heard suffered its twinges was Heywood Brown, years ago.

People who cannot afford such highfalutin ailments seldom have them. I always think of Bill Hog's withering sarcasm for a mediocre actor indulging a fit of temperment. "Why is it," he inquired, "you hams never get temperamental with a policeman?"

Editorial Quips
More than one financially floundering state is beginning to find that prosperity is just around the brewery—Buffalo Courier-Express.

There's a theory that people think better after eating. Thus you see what an important position in the world the cook holds—Toledo Blade.

Congress has postponed consideration of wine for a year, but the elderberries haven't been officially notified—Indianapolis News.

In deference to the younger element that prefers turning corners on two wheels, a new roller skate is being offered with that number—Detroit News.

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS — Construction of rock gardens and fish ponds has become such a fad here that Police Chief William Payne issued a recent edict against digging rocks from highways. It was necessary to delegate a special patrolman to enforce the rule, for a number of days.

Lisbon Kiwanis Plans Two Meets
LISBON, July 6.—The Toronto Kiwanis club will be the guest of the Lisbon Kiwanians this evening during a dinner at the Presbyterian church, when the former club will present a Fellowship chest to the local club. The chest in turn will be presented to the Columbus Kiwanians by the Lisbon club at an inter-city meeting at Columbus the evening of July 10.

The annual family outing of the Lisbon Kiwanis club will be held this season at the East Palestine Country club the afternoon and evening of July 19. Golf will be featured during the afternoon and following the 6:30 o'clock dinner, bridge will be the feature.

Develop the profitable habit of reading all advertisements in The News every night.

JULY
Is the Month
In Which to Buy!

Shop and Save at Spring-Holzwarth

Paint, Greatest of All Preservatives
Now costs less than at any time in the past sixteen years. Look over your house, inside and out, and see where $1.00 worth of paint NOW will save you many dollars later on.

A Lowe Bros. Paint Product for Every Painting Need!

Salem Wall Paper & Paint Co.
619 East State Street, Salem, Ohio

$ NOBIL'S $
Dollar Days
2 Big Days—Friday & Saturday

Clean-Up of Summer Styles
Blondes, Whites, Blacks and Two-Tones. All Leathers. All Styles.

Sale of MEN'S SHOES
Clean-Up of Plain Black Oxfords or Sport Oxfords. All Sizes in This Lot.

$1.48

Sport Oxfords
Little Gents' and Child's Light Color Combinations. Sport Oxfords. Special for Dollar Day.

88c

Tennis Shoes
White or Sun-Tan Color. Lace to Toe Styles. Good Soles. Special for Dollar Days.

35c

Ladies' Arch Supports
FOOTWEAR
Black or Blond Color Combinations. Built-In Arch. Special for Dollar Day.

$1.59

Dress Sandals
Children's White, Patent and Black. Elk Leather. Sizes to 8.

79c

Thrift Service
Our answer to today's budget—a new cleaning service much finer than you can get at this price.

Plain Dresses 50c
Men's Suits
Plain Ladies' Coats

Phone 875

FISH
DIY CLEANING CO.

Shop and Save at Spring-Holzwarth

Paint, Greatest of All Preservatives
Now costs less than at any time in the past sixteen years. Look over your house, inside and out, and see where $1.00 worth of paint NOW will save you many dollars later on.

A Lowe Bros. Paint Product for Every Painting Need!

Salem Wall Paper & Paint Co.
619 East State Street, Salem, Ohio

$ NOBIL'S $
Dollar Days
2 Big Days—Friday & Saturday

Clean-Up of Summer Styles
Blondes, Whites, Blacks and Two-Tones. All Leathers. All Styles.

Sale of MEN'S SHOES
Clean-Up of Plain Black Oxfords or Sport Oxfords. All Sizes in This Lot.

$1.48

Sport Oxfords
Little Gents' and Child's Light Color Combinations. Sport Oxfords. Special for Dollar Day.

88c

Tennis Shoes
White or Sun-Tan Color. Lace to Toe Styles. Good Soles. Special for Dollar Days.

35c

Ladies' Arch Supports
FOOTWEAR
Black or Blond Color Combinations. Built-In Arch. Special for Dollar Day.

$1.59

Dress Sandals
Children's White, Patent and Black. Elk Leather. Sizes to 8.

79c

the NEW CARTER HOTEL
In the Heart of Cleveland
Managing Director FOLSOM B. TAYLOR

RATES BEGIN $2.50

NOBIL'S SHOE STORE
458 East State Street

"FIRST NIGHT MURDER"

By F.G. PARKE

COPYRIGHT 1931, BY DIAL PRESS, INC. - DISTRIBUTED BY KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC.

SYNOPSIS

Julius Brandt, theatrical producer, was slain in his seat at the first night performance of Ellis Martin's mystery play. His throat was slashed during a brief moment of darkness. Grady, the homicide squad, consented to let Ellis help him with the investigation. Margaret Manning was seated two seats away from Brandt when he was slain. It was learned that she had lived with Brandt for years and that he had that day married her daughter Sheila. Sheila was making her debut as a star in that night's play. She told Ellis, who loved her, that she married Brandt because he threatened to destroy her mother's reputation.

Matthew Burton, Brandt's partner, told Ellis that there were peculiar circumstances in the violent death of Mrs. Manning's husband. Burton had been broadcasting from a radio station at the time Brandt was slain but he offered to help the investigators with all possible information.

Ellis and Grady learned that Bonnie Adaire, movie star, had been one of the last visitors to Brandt's office, and that she had been refused a leading role in a film. She had flirted with Sigmund Sterne, banker, and the two had been spied upon by Angelica de Milo, opera star. They went to Bonnie's apartment and found her murdered. Her throat cut. No weapon was in sight. They learned she had quarreled with "Gats" Perino, gangster. Ellis went to a night club to which Bonnie had carried an admission card.

He found Perino there, but was himself drugged. Recovering consciousness he went with Grady to see Brandt's ex-wife.

CHAPTER 22.

"I won't keep you up long," said Grady. His voice was quiet but she seemed to sense an ominous undercurrent in his tone. She looked quickly behind her. Then she shrugged her shoulders and opened the door.

"Mind if I sit down?" asked Grady as he and Martin entered the room. Cora waved them toward a divan and took a chair opposite it. Martin sank down with an inward sigh of relief. The lieutenant took a cigar from his pocket.

"Mind if I smoke?" "No," replied Cora ungraciously. Grady lit his cigar with exasperating slowness and then took several deliberate puffs. Cora's slipper beat a nervous tattoo on the floor. It was apparent that she was under a strain. When she leaned over to use a cigarette from a small table beside the divan, Martin saw that her hand was trembling.

Grady appeared to be entirely at ease. He glanced about the apartment, scrutinizing a picture on the opposite wall and brushed some ashes from his coat sleeve.

"Well, what do you want?" Cora finally burst out, "I told you that I was just going to bed."

"Oh, yes," answered Grady apologetically. He leaned toward her. "Mrs. Brandt, how long have you known Gats Perino?"

"Who?" asked Cora, without flinching.

"Gats Perino," replied Grady softly, "dear, dear, so you've never heard of Gats, eh?"

"Pretended Ignorance" "Oh," Cora laughed shrilly, "you mean the gangster. Of course I've heard of him. But I don't know him."

"Why, no," she replied in an aggrieved voice, "why should I know a gangster?"

"That's exactly what I came here to find out," replied the lieutenant. "What were you talking to him about in the Fifty Club tonight?" Cora shot a quick glance at Martin. Then she looked at Grady and smiled.

"You do get around, don't you, Grady?"

"Yes," Grady's voice became suddenly harsher. "You were talking to Perino just before he slipped some knockout drops in Mr. Ellis' drink. Right after that Perino disappeared. You left the club either at the same time or shortly afterward. Perhaps you know where he went, and perhaps you don't. Perhaps you were just talking to him about the weather, and then, again, perhaps you weren't. I'm just asking."

Cora's figure grew tense. Her eyes darted to a door on the other side of the room, and her face was ghastly in its dead-white makeup. Grady rose slowly from the divan. He walked apparently aimlessly toward the other side of the room. Before Martin could perceive his purpose he had thrown open the door. Without looking inside, he walked slowly back to the divan.

"How dare you?" flared Cora, jumping up and running across the room, "you've no right to search my apartment."

"I'm not searching, Mrs. Brandt," replied Grady innocently. "I hope you didn't mind my opening that door. I'm subject to headaches when a room is too close. It's a bit warm in here, isn't it, Ellis?" Martin suppressed a grin.

"Yes," he agreed gravely, "it's quite hot in here."

"Now Perino's the big shot in a lot of rackets around town," said Grady as though there had been no interruption to his previous remarks. "It seems to me I've heard of a few theatrical people out of work who manage to keep up appearances by taking orders for hooch and dope from their theatrical acquaintances. So I was just wondering if perhaps you might know of any one who—"

"Stop stalling, Grady," said Cora in a white rage, "all right, Perino did proposition Gavin to join his racket. And we turned it down, see. Turned it down flat. There you satisfied now?"

"Yes," answered Grady, "and by the way, Mrs. Brandt, I also came up to return something you left at the Fifty Club. You must have left in a hurry." Cora snatched at the small rhinestone evening bag that he held out. She opened it and looked at Grady with ill-concealed venom.

"Yes," said Grady calmly. "I saw the two tickets to South America in it. And I wouldn't advise—" he raised his voice again—"any one to try to use them. The police department generally has men stationed about the docks. Sorry to have kept you up so late, Mrs. Brandt! Good night!"

Early the next morning Matthew Burton walked into his office and hung up his hat on its customary peg. A pile of mail, already opened and neatly sorted on his desk, was waiting for him. A telegram lay unopened on the blotter.

Burton glanced carefully through the mail, scribbling instructions in the margins of some letters, tossing others into the waste-paper basket, making several memoranda on his writing pad. The high pile dwindled.

Then he drew the cigar box toward him and selected a corona. His eye fell upon the unopened telegram. With the careful deliberation that marked most of the elderly producer's actions he picked up a paper knife and sliced the yellow envelope neatly open. His eyes wandered over the contents. He read it through twice, adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the date line intently. For several minutes he sat silent, staring straight before him. The tired lines seemed to be etched even more deeply in his face. Suddenly he roused himself and pressed the buzzer.

"Kitty," he said, when the dark-haired Cerberus presented herself in answer to his summons, "when did this telegram arrive?"

"About half an hour before you came in, Mr. Burton. I didn't know whether to open it or not, so I left it. J. B. always liked to open his own wires and cables. Why, was it important?"

Burton passed a hand over his eyes. "It doesn't matter, Kitty. You did quite right. It's of no consequence. You might take this mail out and answer it."

He elaborated on one or two of the penciled comments in the margins. Kitty nodded, gathered up the remaining letters and went back to her post in the outer office. Burton folded the telegram, replaced it methodically in the envelope and put it in his wallet. Then he reached for the telephone and called a number.

An Engagement

"Going to be in for a few minutes," he asked into the mouthpiece, "I'd like to come around and have a chat with you. Something rather curious has just occurred. . . . Fine! I'll be over directly. . . . Bye."

He replaced the receiver, lighted his cigar and put on his hat. "I shall be back in about an hour, Kitty," he said as he made his way through the outer office. "If anything urgent turns up you will be able to get me at Mr. Martin Ellis' apartment. But I don't want to be disturbed unless it is really important. Kitty nodded. "O. K. Mr. Burton."

Ten minutes later the producer was shaking hands with Martin Ellis. The author apologized for his appearance. He was still in his dressing gown and pajamas. There were heavy rings under his eyes and he looked sick and tired.

"Had a run in with our leading gunman, Gats Perino, last night," he explained. "I lost. Don't feel too bright this morning."

"Perino?" Burton looked his astonishment.

"The same. In the flesh, as they say in the movies. Say, Burton, did you ever hear of a dump called the Fifty Club?" The producer shook his head. Martin recounted his experiences of the night before and Burton's face assumed an increasingly serious look.

"Do you think that Perino's back of all this mystery?" he inquired at last. "He seems to have had it in for Mr. B. He was living with Miss Adaire and now she's been murdered, too. And it's fairly obvious that he administered something to your drink. If he can put knockout drops in one person's liquor it seems logical to assume that he's capable of putting poison into another's. The police found prussic acid in J. B.'s hip flask. What do you make of that?"

Martin shrugged his shoulders. "Well, in my case there were what you might call mitigating circumstances. The police are hunting Gats. He knew that I'd recognized him and that I was only waiting for an opportunity to sneak out to the telephone and call Grady. That was purely a self-protective measure on Gats' part. I'd probably have done the same if I'd been in his place. He may have bumped his girl friend off, but somehow I don't think Perino had a hand in Brandt's death. Nothing to go on, of course, just a hunch. Have a drink?"

Burton shook his head. "Badly Done Up" "Bit early in the morning for me. But by the looks of you, I should say that you could do with a bracer. That must have been pretty powerful stuff he gave you. I've never seen you look so done up."

Then he drew the cigar box toward him and selected a corona. His eye fell upon the unopened telegram. With the careful deliberation that marked most of the elderly producer's actions he picked up a paper knife and sliced the yellow envelope neatly open. His eyes wandered over the contents. He read it through twice, adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the date line intently. For several minutes he sat silent, staring straight before him. The tired lines seemed to be etched even more deeply in his face. Suddenly he roused himself and pressed the buzzer.

"Kitty," he said, when the dark-haired Cerberus presented herself in answer to his summons, "when did this telegram arrive?"

"About half an hour before you came in, Mr. Burton. I didn't know whether to open it or not, so I left it. J. B. always liked to open his own wires and cables. Why, was it important?"

Burton passed a hand over his eyes. "It doesn't matter, Kitty. You did quite right. It's of no consequence. You might take this mail out and answer it."

He elaborated on one or two of the penciled comments in the margins. Kitty nodded, gathered up the remaining letters and went back to her post in the outer office. Burton folded the telegram, replaced it methodically in the envelope and put it in his wallet. Then he reached for the telephone and called a number.

An Engagement

"Going to be in for a few minutes," he asked into the mouthpiece, "I'd like to come around and have a chat with you. Something rather curious has just occurred. . . . Fine! I'll be over directly. . . . Bye."

He replaced the receiver, lighted his cigar and put on his hat. "I shall be back in about an hour, Kitty," he said as he made his way through the outer office. "If anything urgent turns up you will be able to get me at Mr. Martin Ellis' apartment. But I don't want to be disturbed unless it is really important. Kitty nodded. "O. K. Mr. Burton."

Ten minutes later the producer was shaking hands with Martin Ellis. The author apologized for his appearance. He was still in his dressing gown and pajamas. There were heavy rings under his eyes and he looked sick and tired.

"Had a run in with our leading gunman, Gats Perino, last night," he explained. "I lost. Don't feel too bright this morning."

"Perino?" Burton looked his astonishment.

"The same. In the flesh, as they say in the movies. Say, Burton, did you ever hear of a dump called the Fifty Club?" The producer shook his head. Martin recounted his experiences of the night before and Burton's face assumed an increasingly serious look.

"Do you think that Perino's back of all this mystery?" he inquired at last. "He seems to have had it in for Mr. B. He was living with Miss Adaire and now she's been murdered, too. And it's fairly obvious that he administered something to your drink. If he can put knockout drops in one person's liquor it seems logical to assume that he's capable of putting poison into another's. The police found prussic acid in J. B.'s hip flask. What do you make of that?"

Martin shrugged his shoulders. "Well, in my case there were what you might call mitigating circumstances. The police are hunting Gats. He knew that I'd recognized him and that I was only waiting for an opportunity to sneak out to the telephone and call Grady. That was purely a self-protective measure on Gats' part. I'd probably have done the same if I'd been in his place. He may have bumped his girl friend off, but somehow I don't think Perino had a hand in Brandt's death. Nothing to go on, of course, just a hunch. Have a drink?"

Burton shook his head. "Badly Done Up" "Bit early in the morning for me. But by the looks of you, I should say that you could do with a bracer. That must have been pretty powerful stuff he gave you. I've never seen you look so done up."

Then he drew the cigar box toward him and selected a corona. His eye fell upon the unopened telegram. With the careful deliberation that marked most of the elderly producer's actions he picked up a paper knife and sliced the yellow envelope neatly open. His eyes wandered over the contents. He read it through twice, adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the date line intently. For several minutes he sat silent, staring straight before him. The tired lines seemed to be etched even more deeply in his face. Suddenly he roused himself and pressed the buzzer.

"Kitty," he said, when the dark-haired Cerberus presented herself in answer to his summons, "when did this telegram arrive?"

"About half an hour before you came in, Mr. Burton. I didn't know whether to open it or not, so I left it. J. B. always liked to open his own wires and cables. Why, was it important?"

Burton passed a hand over his eyes. "It doesn't matter, Kitty. You did quite right. It's of no consequence. You might take this mail out and answer it."

He elaborated on one or two of the penciled comments in the margins. Kitty nodded, gathered up the remaining letters and went back to her post in the outer office. Burton folded the telegram, replaced it methodically in the envelope and put it in his wallet. Then he reached for the telephone and called a number.

An Engagement

"Going to be in for a few minutes," he asked into the mouthpiece, "I'd like to come around and have a chat with you. Something rather curious has just occurred. . . . Fine! I'll be over directly. . . . Bye."

He replaced the receiver, lighted his cigar and put on his hat. "I shall be back in about an hour, Kitty," he said as he made his way through the outer office. "If anything urgent turns up you will be able to get me at Mr. Martin Ellis' apartment. But I don't want to be disturbed unless it is really important. Kitty nodded. "O. K. Mr. Burton."

Ten minutes later the producer was shaking hands with Martin Ellis. The author apologized for his appearance. He was still in his dressing gown and pajamas. There were heavy rings under his eyes and he looked sick and tired.

"Had a run in with our leading gunman, Gats Perino, last night," he explained. "I lost. Don't feel too bright this morning."

"Perino?" Burton looked his astonishment.

"The same. In the flesh, as they say in the movies. Say, Burton, did you ever hear of a dump called the Fifty Club?" The producer shook his head. Martin recounted his experiences of the night before and Burton's face assumed an increasingly serious look.

"Do you think that Perino's back of all this mystery?" he inquired at last. "He seems to have had it in for Mr. B. He was living with Miss Adaire and now she's been murdered, too. And it's fairly obvious that he administered something to your drink. If he can put knockout drops in one person's liquor it seems logical to assume that he's capable of putting poison into another's. The police found prussic acid in J. B.'s hip flask. What do you make of that?"

Martin shrugged his shoulders. "Well, in my case there were what you might call mitigating circumstances. The police are hunting Gats. He knew that I'd recognized him and that I was only waiting for an opportunity to sneak out to the telephone and call Grady. That was purely a self-protective measure on Gats' part. I'd probably have done the same if I'd been in his place. He may have bumped his girl friend off, but somehow I don't think Perino had a hand in Brandt's death. Nothing to go on, of course, just a hunch. Have a drink?"

Burton shook his head. "Badly Done Up" "Bit early in the morning for me. But by the looks of you, I should say that you could do with a bracer. That must have been pretty powerful stuff he gave you. I've never seen you look so done up."

Then he drew the cigar box toward him and selected a corona. His eye fell upon the unopened telegram. With the careful deliberation that marked most of the elderly producer's actions he picked up a paper knife and sliced the yellow envelope neatly open. His eyes wandered over the contents. He read it through twice, adjusted his glasses and scrutinized the date line intently. For several minutes he sat silent, staring straight before him. The tired lines seemed to be etched even more deeply in his face. Suddenly he roused himself and pressed the buzzer.

"Kitty," he said, when the dark-haired Cerberus presented herself in answer to his summons, "when did this telegram arrive?"

"About half an hour before you came in, Mr. Burton. I didn't know whether to open it or not, so I left it. J. B. always liked to open his own wires and cables. Why, was it important?"

Whose? Huey's!

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Today

1933 CIVILIZATION FEWER BIRTHS

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1933 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.) GENTLEMEN that write history, in the future will be interested in a little picture of our 1933 civilization.

It shows Mrs. Anna Antonio in a death cell at Sing Sing prison, working at a sewing machine, while waiting to be killed in the electric chair for murdering her husband. She has two daughters, eight and six years old, and a boy two years old; and she told the warden she would like to make some clothes for them before she died. The sewing machine was kindly supplied.

THAT IS REAL NEWS because it never happened before. It will be news also when men enter that death cell, take the woman from her sewing machine, shave her head for application of the wet electrode, and send her a long way from her three children.

It would seem that some better plan might be worked out. Why not let the mother stay in prison and work for her children? Perhaps Governor Lehman of New York, will decide to save the little boy and his two sisters from the unpleasant memory that their mother was killed in the electric chair. Was it worse for an ignorant mother to kill her husband, than for an enlightened state to disgrace, for life, her innocent children?

BIRTHS are diminishing all over the United States. In 1930 there were hardly enough births to make up for the deaths and now, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., "with the further decline registered, we have undoubtedly passed the balance mark." This means that Americans are dying more rapidly than they are being born.

IT IS A pity, since this country could easily support 10 times as many people as it has now. In fact, Texas alone could easily feed that number intensively cultivated.

And immigration from foreign countries, which built up this country originally, has dropped to almost nothing.

The birth rate is extremely low in California, but the native sons

explain that easily: "People die so rarely in this state that there is no need of having babies born so often."

CHICAGO'S "Century of Progress" exposition will soon see General Italo Balbo with his 24 Italian seaplanes landing on Lake Michigan.

Yesterday the Italian air armada alighted at Reykjavik, Iceland, half way on the journey.

It is not necessary to emphasize what this flight means to the United States in connection with future wars.

The English knew that their old days of security from invasion had passed when the first airplane flew over the channel, to land in England.

This country should learn something when those 24 Italian planes land on Lake Michigan, having flown the Atlantic.

HAGEN, the American professional who has won in England four times, took the lead in the Briti h open golf championship yesterday, making the round of 18 holes in 68, five under par.

If the American dollar manages to do as well as our athletic champions are doing, everything will be serene.

Europe still thinks the dollar is not very good. It was quoted yesterday at 73.98 cents, compared with its old gold value. A dollar used to be worth about 25 francs in the estimation of Frenchmen. Now it is worth only a little more than 18 francs.

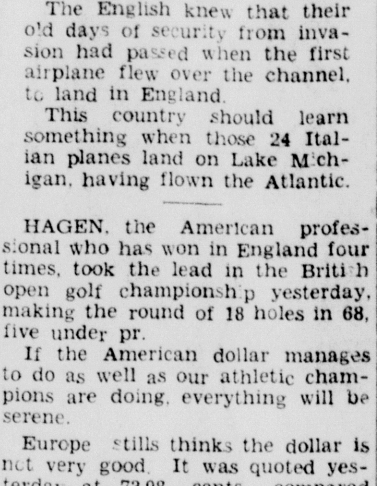

AMERICANS may not lead in diplomacy, but they seem to understand games that call for good sight, good nerves, speed, strength and determination.

At Wimbledon, Vines, Californian, defeated Cochet, the able

Who's? Huey's!

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Today

1933 CIVILIZATION FEWER BIRTHS

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1933 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.) GENTLEMEN that write history, in the future will be interested in a little picture of our 1933 civilization.

It shows Mrs. Anna Antonio in a death cell at Sing Sing prison, working at a sewing machine, while waiting to be killed in the electric chair for murdering her husband. She has two daughters, eight and six years old, and a boy two years old; and she told the warden she would like to make some clothes for them before she died. The sewing machine was kindly supplied.

THAT IS REAL NEWS because it never happened before. It will be news also when men enter that death cell, take the woman from her sewing machine, shave her head for application of the wet electrode, and send her a long way from her three children.

It would seem that some better plan might be worked out. Why not let the mother stay in prison and work for her children? Perhaps Governor Lehman of New York, will decide to save the little boy and his two sisters from the unpleasant memory that their mother was killed in the electric chair. Was it worse for an ignorant mother to kill her husband, than for an enlightened state to disgrace, for life, her innocent children?

BIRTHS are diminishing all over the United States. In 1930 there were hardly enough births to make up for the deaths and now, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., "with the further decline registered, we have undoubtedly passed the balance mark." This means that Americans are dying more rapidly than they are being born.

IT IS A pity, since this country could easily support 10 times as many people as it has now. In fact, Texas alone could easily feed that number intensively cultivated.

And immigration from foreign countries, which built up this country originally, has dropped to almost nothing.

The birth rate is extremely low in California, but the native sons

explain that easily: "People die so rarely in this state that there is no need of having babies born so often."

CHICAGO'S "Century of Progress" exposition will soon see General Italo Balbo with his 24 Italian seaplanes landing on Lake Michigan.

Yesterday the Italian air armada alighted at Reykjavik, Iceland, half way on the journey.

It is not necessary to emphasize what this flight means to the United States in connection with future wars.

The English knew that their old days of security from invasion had passed when the first airplane flew over the channel, to land in England.

This country should learn something when those 24 Italian planes land on Lake Michigan, having flown the Atlantic.

HAGEN, the American professional who has won in England four times, took the lead in the Briti h open golf championship yesterday, making the round of 18 holes in 68, five under par.

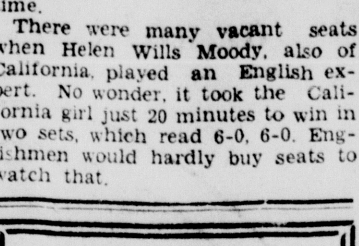

If the American dollar manages to do as well as our athletic champions are doing, everything will be serene.

Europe still thinks the dollar is not very good. It was quoted yesterday at 73.98 cents, compared with its old gold value. A dollar used to be worth about 25 francs in the estimation of Frenchmen. Now it is worth only a little more than 18 francs.

AMERICANS may not lead in diplomacy, but they seem to understand games that call for good sight, good nerves, speed, strength and determination.

At Wimbledon, Vines, Californian, defeated Cochet, the able

Who's? Huey's!

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Rose Long, below, daughter of Louisiana's headline senator, Huey P. Long, is visiting Chicago World's Fair with (above) Joyce Allen, daughter of Gov. O. K. Allen of the same state.

Today

1933 CIVILIZATION FEWER BIRTHS

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1933 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.) GENTLEMEN that write history, in the future will be interested in a little picture of our 1933 civilization.

It shows Mrs. Anna Antonio in a death cell at Sing Sing prison, working at a sewing machine, while waiting to be killed in the electric chair for murdering her husband. She has two daughters, eight and six years old, and a boy two years old; and she told the warden she would like to make some clothes for them before she died. The sewing machine was kindly supplied.

THAT IS REAL NEWS because it never happened before. It will be news also when men enter that death cell, take the woman from her sewing machine, shave her head for application of the wet electrode, and send her a long way from her three children.

It would seem that some better plan might be worked out. Why not let the mother stay in prison and work for her children? Perhaps Governor Lehman of New York, will decide to save the little boy and his two sisters from the unpleasant memory that their mother was killed in the electric chair. Was it worse for an ignorant mother to kill her husband, than for an enlightened state to disgrace, for life, her innocent children?

BIRTHS are diminishing all over the United States. In 1930 there were hardly enough births to make up for the deaths and now, according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., "with the further decline registered, we have undoubtedly passed the balance mark." This means that Americans are dying more rapidly than they are being born.

IT IS A pity, since this country could easily support 10 times as many people as it has now. In fact, Texas alone could easily feed that number intensively cultivated.

And immigration from foreign countries, which built up this country originally, has dropped to almost nothing.

The birth rate is extremely low in California, but the native sons

explain that easily: "People die so rarely in this state that there is no need of having babies born so often."

CHICAGO'S "Century of Progress" exposition will soon see General Italo Balbo with his 24 Italian seaplanes landing on Lake Michigan.

Yesterday the Italian air armada alighted at Reykjavik, Iceland, half way on the journey.

It is not necessary to emphasize what this flight means to the United States in connection with future wars.

The English knew that their old days of security from invasion had passed when the first airplane flew over the channel, to land in England.

This country should learn something when those 24 Italian planes land on Lake Michigan, having flown the Atlantic.

HAGEN, the American professional who has won in England four times, took the lead in the Briti h open golf championship yesterday, making the round of 18 holes in 68, five under par.

If the American dollar manages to do as well as our athletic champions are doing, everything will be serene.

Europe still thinks the dollar is not very good. It was quoted yesterday at 73.98 cents, compared with its old

Social Affairs

REUNIONS

Scullion
One hundred and six relatives attended the first annual reunion of the Scullion family held Tuesday at the home of John Scullion, Franklin rd. Those in attendance came from Carroll, Pittsburgh, Beaver Falls and New Brighton, Pa., and Cleveland, Akron, Mansfield and Struthers, Ohio, Windsor, Ontario and Detroit, Michigan.

A basket dinner was served at noon. The remainder of the time was spent playing games and visiting. Officers will be elected at the next reunion which will be held July 4, 1934.

Cobbs
The first annual reunion of the Cobbs family was held on the Fourth of July at the home of Mrs. C. M. Yoder, which is located on the shore of Lake Erie, Lakewood, Ohio. Those who attended from Salem included: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cobbs, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Cobbs and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stratton and children, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pearson. Others were from Rocky River and Beloit.

Dinner was served at one long table in the boat house and covers were laid for 50 guests. Following the dinner bathing and games entertained.

Another reunion will be held July 4, 1934.

Hamilton
Nineteen members of the George and Margaret Scott Hamilton family held their 13th annual reunion Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hamilton, southeast of Winona.

Relatives were present from Salem and Newgard. Plans were made for a reunion next year but the time and place will be announced later.

Dorrance
There were 33 present when members of the Dorrence family met Tuesday for their annual reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Coburn, Greenford, O.

They came from Coropolis and Pittsburgh, Pa., Cleveland, Lisbon, Greenford and Salem and vicinity. Another reunion will be held next year at the same place and the same time.

ROHAN-McGUREN
Miss Mary Rohan and Joseph P. McGuren, both of Salem, were united in marriage at 8 a. m. Tuesday at St. Paul's Catholic church by Rev. Maurice Casey. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Lena Marie Rohan, and D. J. Mullins.

The bride was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. Rohan wore a blue dress and her bouquet was of white lilies.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Perry st.

Mrs. McGuren is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Rohan. She is employed by the Salem China company. Mr. McGuren, son of Mrs. Bessie McGuren, East Liverpool, is an employee at the Italy dairy store, Salem. They will make their home at 624 Perry st.

SCHOOL REUNION
Mrs. Gertrude Tobin Scanlon and Mrs. Flora Hawkins Crawford, both of Alliance are president and secretary, respectively, of the Kensington school reunion which will hold its third annual meeting Sunday, July 9, at "Rose Gardens" Minerva.

Dinner will be served at noon and all who have attended the Kensington school will be welcome together with their families. An invitation has been issued also to former teachers and pupils of the Hanoverton school.

HARRIET WATT GUILD
Mrs. George Frenz entertained members of the Harriet Watt guild of the Episcopal church Wednesday evening at her home, Fair st. After the business meeting a social period was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Plans were made to attend the church picnic to be held next Wednesday at Lake park, Alliance.

The next regular meeting of the guild will be held the first Wednesday in August.

HONORED AT DINNER
Mr. and Mrs. John Kinsley and family and Mrs. Maud Kinsley have returned to their homes here after visiting relatives in Bedford, Pa. They were honored at a dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Kinsley, Bedford. A centerpiece of roses made the table attractive.

Elden Kinsley and family of Altoona, Pa., were also guests at the dinner.

W. B. A. TO MEET
The Women's Benefit association will have a social meeting at 7:30 this evening at Centennial park.

Lunch will be served and cards played. All members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oyster, Fair st., have returned to their home after visiting their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Coffman, Chicago, Ill. While there they attended the World's fair. Miss Doris Reeder, Jacksonville, Fla., who arrived in Chicago Sunday evening, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Oyster to Salem where she will spend some time.

SOCIAL MEETING

A social meeting of the young people of Goshen grange was held Wednesday evening at the hall, north of Salem. Members of Smith grange entertained with special music. The remainder of the time was spent playing games. A lunch was served by the social committee.

Another meeting will be held the first Wednesday in August.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Friends and relatives gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sanor, south of North Georgetown, to celebrate Mrs. Sanor's birthday. Music was furnished by Mrs. Elmer Hardy, Esther and Velma Sanor and Leland Stoffer. Refreshments were served.

RUTH CIRCLE

Members of the Ruth circle of the First Friends church will meet Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Raymond Ingram, 131 East State st.

Must Trim Frills

LANCASTER, O., July 6.—Addressing the convention of the Flint Glass Workers' union here, M. J. Gilooly, the union's president, said the organization must trim the "frills" from its maintenance costs if the group would share in increased wages "sure to come from President Roosevelt's drive for higher levels."

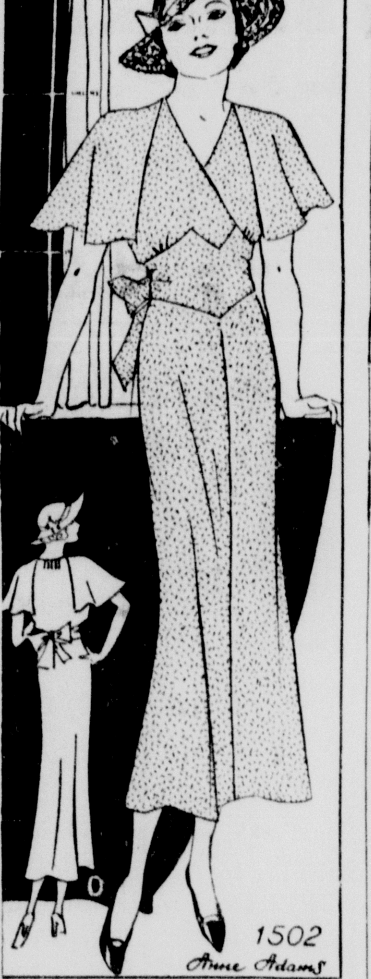

The convention must set up a wage scale to conform with provisions of the industrial recovery act.

Politician Dies

BOONEVILLE, Ky., July 6.—Col. Ike Wilder, 59, former member of the state railroad commission and former assistant adjutant general, died at his home here after a long illness. Col. Wilder, long prominent in Republican politics, was named to the railroad commission in 1932 from the second district and served a four year term.

His widow and eight children survive. He served with the Kentucky national guard on the Mexican border and in the World war.

Today's Pattern

1502
Capes are flattering
PATTERN 1502

There's flattery and chic in capes! That's why we're so proud of this lovely afternoon frock. It's fashioned to capture every woman's heart. And quite as captivating is the surprise bodice and novel waistline treatment. Smart seaming in front, a sash and crisp bow to tie in back. If you're partial to cottons, as we are, use dimity, lawn, Swiss, etc. Chiffons and silk prints are lovely for chic.

Pattern 1502 may be ordered only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with pattern.

The new summer edition of the Anne Adams pattern book is ready. Afternoon, sports, golf, tennis dresses, jumpers, house frocks, special beginners' patterns, styles for juniors, and cool clothes for youngsters, and instructions for making a chic sweater are among the fascinating items.

COUPON

This pattern will be delivered upon receipt of 15 cents, coin or stamps, carefully wrapped. Latest Fashion Book 10c. Send all orders to SALEM NEWS PATTERN DEPARTMENT, 243 WEST 17TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Pattern No. Size
Name

Address

City State

Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Winder and children have returned from Chicago, Ill., to their home, South Lincoln ave.

Formal Summer Evenings

By MARIE MAROT

SHIMMERING, BEAUTIFUL fabrics need very little more than expert cutting and styling to make them exquisite. This may be seen by a glance at the softly draped white crepe gown at the right. The fabric has been twisted and manipulated into a lovely gown. Color is given by a carbon blue sash that twists through the gathered neckline in front, swoops to the waist in back and then grows fuller and fuller, ending in a slight train. The other frock is of icy green satin. The tiny dolman has a fox fur scarf.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

HOW AND WHERE TO MARK OR MONOGRAM YOUR BEST LINEN

Of course there is nothing so fine and rich looking as the hand-embroidered monogram on linen. But not all of us can indulge in this real luxury. But just the same, linen should be marked. And the best ways are with name tapes or with marking ink. If you have a flair for needlework, why not make up your mind to embroider at least your best sheets, pillow cases and towels, leaving the other methods to the rest of your household linen.

If you don't want to go to the trouble of ordering tapes with your name, it is possible to buy, ready in most stores, initial tapes. These are usually in white with red letters. Of course, if you put in a special order, your name will be done in any style script and in any color scheme you desire. This method is best, if one cannot have a hand embroidered monogram.

Pencil Name In First

Now for the marking ink method which is so popular. It is wise to always write the name first in pencil. This acts as a guide and prevents all sorts of troubles. Know just where you want the article marked. You will want to place it where it will be readily seen and yet be unobtrusive. For name tapes or marking inks, sheets and tablecloths should be marked on the edge of the hem and at the sides. Pillow cases should be marked on the hem under the flap fastening. Should you make a blot with marking ink, dip the spot in a solution of chloride of lime. This will turn the ink white. Then place the spot in ammonia for a few moments and complete by washing in clean water.

Where to Mark Linen
If you are going to embroider your household linen, sheets should be marked about three inches from the top hem, in the center.

Be careful to work the monogram so that it is right when the sheet is turned down on the bed. For tablecloths or napkins, the handworked initials should be placed in one of the corners.

Be careful with your linen. It will repay you. To be sure that everything is used in turn, always place freshly laundered articles at the bottom of the pile and use the top pieces. Go over your stock constantly, for mending.

It is good to fold different ways, for things have a habit of wearing at the fold, if always folded the same way. Different colored bands of ribbon elastic are excellent for keeping the linen in separate piles, much better than ribbons that have to be untied often. See to it that your linen is kept in a closet that is dry but not hot. It is good to use old sheets to cover the various shelves of snowy linen, no matter how immaculate your linen closet may be.

GETTING RESULTS

Classified ads. are alert salesmen on duty every night. They get results.

To Keep Cut Flowers Fresh and Beautiful

In these summer days of abundant bloom, it is especially desirable to know how to keep cut flowers fresh and beautiful as long as possible. Incidentally, if you don't grow them yourself, buy your flowers from the original grower or a reputable florist.

For some reason, no matter how attractive his low-priced wares may appear, usually offers you "seconds"—flowers long cut but freshened up drastically to sell quickly.

The florist puts flowers newly arrived from the grower in deep containers with cool water, so that they may recover from their trip to market, and a good florist usually won't sell you blooms until they have had a few hours of this necessary treatment.

For keeping flowers fresh and lovely, some swear by an aspirin dropped in the water. Others put a few drops of mild disinfectant in the water to prevent decay, while some advocate bits of charcoal in the flower vase. The last is about the best idea of all, even though your florist might not admit it.

How to Arrange the Flowers

But whatever you use it will be of little help unless you keep the flowers out of strong air currents or strong sunshine, away from direct heat and out of a stuffy room.

Never put too many flowers in one container. Flowers, like every living thing, must breathe, and do not thrive in cramped quarters. Cut off all leaves that come below the level of the water or they will decay and make the water foul—sure death to flowers.

Cut With Sharp Knife

To cut stems, use a sharp knife, with a long slanting cut, prevent the stem from standing flat against the bottom so that no water can be absorbed. The long cut allows the greatest possible surface to absorb water, insuring a good supply to keep the flowers from wilting. At least one-third of the stem should be immersed in water. If you use flat containers for a dinner party, keep the flowers in deeper containers except during dinner, and replace them afterward.

Learn the art of flower arrangement. If you use flowers a lot, it would be worth while to invest in a book dealing with this art. A few flowers beautifully arranged in a simple container make a far more exquisite picture than a mass of flowers in an elaborate vase.

Lastly, if your room is simple, with colonial furniture and china, don't go in for rich flowers. Simple flowers in squat bowls will fill the bill adequately.

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The Department of Public Instruction reported that Pennsylvania colleges and universities have a total endowment of about $90,000,000. Five of the 54 accredited colleges have no endowment funds, and the largest fund for one institution is approximately $19,000,000, the department reported.

NEWS FROM NEARBY DISTRICTS

GREENFORD

Mrs. Walter D. Smith and daughter, Charlotte and Marjorie June spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Cook and family.

Returns From Visit

Mrs. Nettie Feicht returned home from a two weeks visit in Detroit. Her son Harold and family met her in Clyde, and she came home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. McClellan and sons and Gladys Callahan of Gettysburg spent Monday evening with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Houts and Bernice Schaffer spent Tuesday at Millcreek park.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Hendricks and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris called at K. M. Crawford's, near Rogers, Sunday. Mr. Crawford has fifty acres of black raspberries.

Mrs. E. J. Cook, daughter Mary and Miss Marjorie Cook, spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Smith in Washingtonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lambright and daughter, Eleanor were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ewing in Sebring.

Visits Sister

Miss Lela Bricker of Longs Crossing is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Raymond Rhodes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kelly, Edward Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Hives and Mrs. V. F. Fisher of Conneville, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Dressel of this place spent the Fourth with the former's daughter, Mrs. Ensign Shirey and family.

Fred Crooks of Elyria spent the weekend at Byron Crawford's, Mrs. Crooks, who has spent several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Crawford, returned home with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rich and son, called Sunday afternoon on Mr. and Mrs. Harmon in Columbiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Weikart and son of Washingtonville spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Elise Bush.

There were 82 communicants at the Lutheran church, Sunday.

Harvey and Anna Bush, Francis Behring and Marie Hendricks accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shepard to Alliance Sunday afternoon, and visited Mr. and Mrs. Steve Packey.

The Lutheran church council met at the church Monday evening. Trustees met in regular session last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lamb and daughter, Phyllis attended the funeral of Mr. Lamb's father in Walker, Ia., last week.

Visit in Homeworth

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weikart and son William, Violet Weikart and Josephine Calvin called on Mrs. Emma Cameron in Homeworth Sunday. Isabelle and Mary Weikart, who had spent the weekend there, returned home with them.

William Dively, Miss June Dively and Leroy Scott of Somerset, Pa., visited from Wednesday until Friday with their uncle, L. F. Dively and family, on their way home from the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McGinnis of Warren and Mrs. Harvey Knauf of Calla spent Sunday afternoon in the Pettit home.

W. P. Coy has developed a beautiful lily garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Orin Dressel were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chambers in Youngstown.

H. W. Zimmerman of Leeton called on his sister, Lottie Zimmerman, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brothers of Canfield visited Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown.

Arthur Gerlach of Wisconsin visited his family here over the fourth at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Willamson.

An Hour Too Late

Robert White's parents lost a battle with Lynn, Mass., school bureaucracy when officials decided that Bobby must wait another year to enter school. He was born at 11:55 p. m., E.S.T., May 15, 1928. The officials figured it was 12:55 a. m., daylight time, and ruled he was too young by an hour to matriculate.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Royer entertained company from Pittsburgh, Sunday.

Mrs. Jack Klush, daughter, Virginia, son Jack of Bolin Hill and Mrs. E. A. Calvin of Youngstown, spent Friday with Mrs. Mary Pettit. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clay were in Painesville Sunday.

Visit Mrs. Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slagle and children of Johnstown, Pa., were guests of Mrs. Lottie Slagle Tuesday.

Miss Elizabeth Dively was home from Kent over Sunday and the Fourth.

Ruth and Dorothy Olsen of Ashland were Greenford callers, Friday.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid and Missionary meetings were held Monday evening at Mrs. Albert Lange.

Mrs. Maggie Weaver, daughter, Minnie and grandson, Herbert Bush of Salem, called on the former's niece, Mrs. Frank Rhodes, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lottie Slagle and family attended the Bean reunion at Centennial park, Sunday.

Mrs. F. S. Stockberger of Cleveland is spending a few days with her niece, Mrs. L. C. Bush.

Mrs. Sullivan and three children of Girard, visited Thursday evening at the home of J. H. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Howells Davis and baby of Columbiana were Sunday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis.

Miss Marjorie Cook of Youngstown is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Cook and family.

R. B. Bush of Canfield attended Communion services here Sunday, and visited at the homes of M. B. Bush and Dewey Bush.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lambright of Enoch Valley were guests Friday, of his son, Chas. and family.

SALEM, Ore.—Prosperity is slow enough, but is apparently coming back to Oregon. Figures compiled show that between March 1 and May 31, price of wheat increased 48 per cent, oats 58 1/2 per cent, corn 82 1/2 per cent, wool 125 per cent, hides 147 per cent, hops 200 per cent, fir lumber 60 per cent.

WASHINGTONVILLE

"Church Night", will be observed at the Methodist church, Friday evening. Rev. David S. Lamb of Columbiana will be the principal speaker.

Congregational business of the church will be discussed at this meeting. Refreshments will be served by the Ladies Aid.

Returns From Visit

Mrs. Walter Anderson returned to her home in Kenosha, Wis., on Saturday evening after pending several weeks in the home of her son, Rev. Anderson and family. She was accompanied by her little granddaughter, Gertrude Anderson.

Leroy Girard, Lester Spear, Herbert Hatley, Robert Boston, Keith DeJame are enjoying a weeks camping and fishing at Fredericktown.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin, Mrs. Doris Bailey and Rudolf Kloos are enjoying a week in Canada and other points of interest.

Fred Hoyer and Miss Alice Myers of Pittsburgh spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McLellan.

Rev. and Mrs. Sidney Sultor, daughters, Esther and Ruth and sons Gordon and David of Olmstead Falls were Sunday evening guests in the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Anderson.

Miss Emma Floding of near Leeton was a visitor on Thursday and Friday in the home of Mrs. Winifred Baker.

Attend Funeral

Mrs. Maggie Spear, sons Donald, Ronald and Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spear, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stouffer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeJame, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Reese attended the funeral of Mrs. Spear's sister, Mrs. Mary James at Lisbon, Sunday.

Dale Ward of Lisbon is a visitor in the home of his sister, Mrs. Ronald McLellan and family.

Vera, Myrna and Don Davis took part in the program at a benefit party given at Holy Trinity Lutheran church in Salem on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McLellan and daughters, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Michael Grill and son Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Marple of Salem, and Dale Ward of Lisbon spent the Fourth at Stanley park at Alliance.

Mrs. Ed. Frankfort underwent an operation at the Salem City hospital on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Weikart and daughter, Florence, spent the Fourth with relatives at Toronto.

TRY THE SALEM NEWS

HANOVERTON

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Betz were recent Cleveland visitors.

Guests At Derr Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Vernon of Alliance, Mrs. Alice Osmann, of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. George Warrick of Salem were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Blanche Derr.

Miss Gretchen Hole was a Thursday Youngstown visitor.

R. E. McKee is in the Central Clinic hospital in Salem.

Albert Loudon is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Faloon are visiting near Jamestown, N. Y.

Entertains Club

Mrs. E. E. Bower was hostess to the Jolly Matron club at her home Thursday evening.

Mrs. E. P. Welner and children of Akron spent the week-end here.

Ed. Glass, Jr. of Toledo is the guest of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sinclair of Cleveland, spent the week-end here.

Mrs. Les Ruble of Akron was a Thursday visitor here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Carle and Mr. and Mrs. George Zeppernick were recent East Liverpool callers.

GETTING RESULTS

Classified ads. are alert salesmen on duty every night. They get results.

House Paint

The

Benj. Moore

& Co.

LINE OF PAINTS AND VARNISHES

Are Guaranteed to Give You Entire Satisfaction.

Buy Your Paint At

BROWN'S

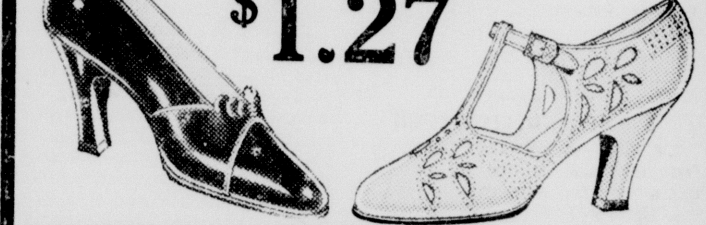

Also Headquarters for Apex Washers, Lifters, Cleaners, and Refrigerators, Gas Ranges, Furnaces, Wall Paper, Etc.

SALE! MERIT'S SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE

Big Reduction On All Summer Styles

Women's Styles

Whites, Blonds, Black Kid and Patent Up to $3.00 Values

Children's Footwear 69c

Men's Dress Sox Assorted Colors 6 Prs. 47c

Slippers Women's Padded Soles, All Sizes 27c

Men's Work Shoes Long-Wearing Soles $1.29

TENNIS SHOES 39c All Sizes

Men's Summer Sport Oxfords Tan, Black and White, Tan and White Up to $3.00 Values $1.97

MARKETS

PIVOT STOCKS
STEADY TODAY

Some of the Rail Shares
Are Imbued With New Courage

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 6.—The pigging dollar settled down to a slow wait today and financial markets generally maintained a firm position in quite active trading.

Pivotal stocks were steady but displayed little inclination to repeat their recent soaring movements. Pool operations were apparent in some specialties. The British pound sterling edged a trifle in terms of dollars and most European gold currencies fluctuated in unimportant fractions. Wheat was firm and corn jumped another cent or more on further reports of crop damage. Cotton was a bit easier at one time as acreage uncertainties entered offset large mill buying. Bar silver was off 3-4 of a cent at 36 3-8 cents an ounce. Bonds were slightly irregular.

Some of the rail shares were imbued with renewed courage by fresh news of substantial increases in traffic. Advances of 1 to 2 or more points were recorded by Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, New York Central, Delaware & Hudson and Central of New Jersey. The tobacco was also given a run with Reynolds B. L.gett & Myers B. American B and Lorillard getting up around 1 to 3. Consolidated Gas came back with a 2-point advance and American Power & Light and Public Service of New Jersey dropped up more than a point each. Oils up fractionally to 2 points included standard of New Jersey, Houston, Pure and Secony, Douglas Aircraft, United Aircraft and Aviation Corp. Showed similar gains. The alcohol and farm stocks were indifferent.

Ammunition for the carrier group was furnished by the carloading figures of the Pennsylvania for last week which disclosed a gain of some 25,000 over the same period last year.

New York Stocks

	Yesterday	Close	2 p.m.
A. T. & T.	130 1/2	131
Am. Tab. "B"	91	93 1/4
Anacosta	19	19 1/2
Bethlehem	46	46
Case	33 1/2	34
Chrysler	38	38 1/2
Columbia Gas	25 1/2	26 1/2
General Elect.	23 1/2	24
Gen. Foods	38	38 1/2
General Motors	31 1/2	32
Goodyear	38 1/2	39 1/2
Int. Harvester	42 1/2	44
Johns-Manville	53	55 1/2
Kennecott	22 1/2	23 1/2
Montgomery Ward	27 1/2	28
Mutuals	9 1/2	9 1/2
Nat. Biscuit	58 1/2	57
N. Y. Central	53 1/2	54
P. R. R.	37 1/2	38 1/2
P. R. R.	37 1/2	38 1/2
P. R. R.	37 1/2	38 1/2
Radio	10 1/2	10 1/2
Reynolds Tob. "B"	46 1/2	49 1/2
Sears	44	44 1/2
Secony Vacuum	14 1/2	15 1/2
Stand. Brands	26 1/2	27 1/2
Un. Aircraft	37 1/2	39
St. Oil N. J.	39 1/2	40 1/2
U. S. Ind. Alco.	67	68
U. S. Steel	61 1/2	62 1/2
Westinghouse	49	50 1/2
Woolworth	47 1/2	48 1/2
4th Liberty Loan 4 1/2	103 1/2	104 1/2
Sterling	4 1/2	4 1/2

CLEVELAND LIVESTOCK

CATTLE, 250, steady; fancy, dried yearlings, 00; lbs. up 50¢/7.00; prime dry fed shipping steers 1.30; lbs. up 5.50¢/6.25; good to choice shipping steers, 1.10; lbs. up 5.25¢/6.75; good to choice butcher steers, 1.10; lbs. up 5.25¢/6.75.

HEIFERS, choice prime yearling heifers 5.00¢/7.50; heavy fat heifers 4.00¢/5.00.

COWS, prime butcher cows 3.00¢/4.00.

CALVES, 600, strong active, prime native calves, 6.50¢/7.00; choice native veals, 5.50¢/6.50.

HOGS, 1,300, 5 higher; 250-300 lbs. up 4.90¢/5.25; good to choice 4.90¢/5.25; butchers 2.20-3.00 lbs. 4.90¢/5.25; Yorkers, 150-180 lbs. 4.90¢/5.25; good quality, 3.50¢/4.00; roughs 2.50¢/3.00.

LAMBS, 600, 25 higher; choice to prime springers 7.00¢/7.50.

SHEEP, choice wethers, handy weights 2.50¢/3.50; choice ewes 2.00¢/3.00.

PITTSBURGH LIVESTOCK

Hogs, 1,000, active, steady; 210-300 lbs. 4.75¢/5.25; 180-240 lbs. 4.85¢/5.25; 120-145 lbs. 3.75¢/4.25; pigs and roughs 3.00¢/3.50.

Cattle, 300, steady; medium and good steers 4.50¢/5.25; comparable heifers 3.00¢/5.00; good cows 3.25¢/3.75; common to good bulls 2.75¢/3.75.

Calves, 100, steady to strong; good vealers 5.50¢/7.50; choice up to 6.15¢/6.50; medium grade 4.50¢/5.25; heavy and thin 3.25¢/3.75.

Sheep, 700, steady; good and choice lambs 7.00¢/8.50; medium 5.50¢/6.00; prime wethers 2.50¢/3.75; ewes, medium to choice 1.00¢/1.50.

TREASURY RECEIPTS

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Treasury receipts for July 1 were $92,240,947.78; expenditures $84,828,007.42; balance $89,618,180.97. Customs duties for one day of July were $568,824.42.

Name College Head

CLEVELAND, July 6.—The board of trustees of Baldwin-Wallace college at Berea has named Dr. D. C. Grover acting president. Grover is vice president of the college. The board also appointed a committee to recommend a successor to Dr. Albert B. Storms, 73, who died last Saturday.

National League Team for Game of Century

Here are the stalwarts of the National League who will meet the American League team in the baseball Game of the Century at Comiskey Park, Chicago, July 6. Pitchers: Carl Hubbell (1), New York; Wilson (2), St. Louis; Hallahan (3), St. Louis; Warnecke (4), Chicago; Schumacher (5), New York. Infielders: Bartell (6), Philadelphia; Frisch (7), St. Louis; Terry (8), New York; Traynor (9), Pittsburgh; Cuccinello (10), Brooklyn; English (11), Chicago. Outfielders: Chuck Klein, Philadelphia; P. Waner (12), Pittsburgh; O'Doul (13), New York; Martin (14), St. Louis; Hafey (15), Cincinnati. Catcher Gabby Hartnett (16), Chicago. John McGraw, former manager of New York Giants, is National League manager.

THE HOME KITCHEN

—By Jeanette Young Norton

Appetizing and Healthful Salads for the Warm Days

Appetizing salads are growing in favor and as the warm weather comes along, there is an added demand for these salads, which together with tasty appetizers can do so much to making even the simplest meal a banquet. For warm weather food, dishes that can be made and put away in the refrigerator to get thoroughly chilled and to have their fine flavor brought out, are most desirable. And so, without more preamble here is a batch of new and delicious appetizers and appetizing salads.

For anchovy eggs, cut in half four hard-boiled eggs, lengthwise, and remove the yolks. Blend yolks four teaspoons of anchovy paste and half teaspoon Worcestershire sauce until smooth. Refill the egg whites with this mixture and chill in automatic refrigerator. Place in toast rounds, the centers of which have been cut out with small cutter.

Here's my favorite stuffed celery recipe. Blend thoroughly half cup mayonnaise, three ounces of cream cheese and a quarter cup Roquefort cheese. Wash pieces of celery of uniform length. Wrap in damp cloth and put in automatic refrigerator. When celery is crisp, stuff with mayonnaise and cheese mixture. Garnish with paprika.

If you want to serve a pretentious appetizer that manages to be inexpensive, try deviled eggs in tomato aspic. Cut in half lengthwise, three hard-boiled eggs, and remove yolks. Blend yolks with two tablespoons mayonnaise, one-eighth of a teaspoon each of salt and pepper and a dash of paprika. Refill the whites with this mixture. Soak one tablespoon gelatin in half cup cold water. Cook enough tomatoes for one and a half cups, either fresh or canned, with half teaspoon salt, one and a half teaspoons sugar, a teaspoon grated onion, and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Cook for ten minutes and strain off liquid. Dissolve the gelatin in the hot liquid. Cool. Put deviled eggs in individual molds (one-half in each).

Shrimp and Grapefruit
Then pour the tomato jelly over each. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce and serve with additional mayonnaise.

For that different appetizing salad why not plan to serve shrimp and grapefruit salad? To one-third of a cup of mayonnaise, add in the order given, the following ingredients: One cup grapefruit sections, cut in pieces; one cup shrimp, cut in pieces; one-third cup of cucumber sliced, and three-quarters of a cup of diced celery. Chill in refrigerator. Serve on crisp lettuce and garnish with small pimento slices.

Crab Meat Cocktails
Crab meat cocktails are just crab meat and cocktail sauce, so I am pleased to give you a different way of serving this pungent and refreshing appetizer. Soften two teaspoons gelatin in two tablespoons cold water. Add three tablespoons hot lemon juice and dissolve. Cool slightly. Fold in the following ingredients in the order given: One cup flaked crab meat, half cup chili sauce and half cup mayonnaise. Turn into individual molds. Chill in refrigerator until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce and garnish with additional mayonnaise. This will serve six.

VEAL RECIPE FROM FRANCE
Many people think of veal only in terms of veal cutlets or veal chops or possibly a veal stew with carrots and peas. But ever so many delightful, tasty dishes can be made with veal. The French, particularly, prepare veal in all sorts of delicious dishes and one of the recipes that this column has today are from France.

Casserole of Veal
Most delicious is casserole of veal. A favorite with everyone ever introduced to it at our table. Pieces of good, fleshy veal should be cut into chunks of about one inch in length. Place these in a casserole together with small onions and some minced onion, some tomatoes, mushrooms, a few sticks of celery, but not many, some thyme and some bay leaves for seasoning, and some butter. This is somewhat a modification of the way veal en casserole is served in the country districts of France. There it is often made with a quantity of stock, chunks of veal, lentils, minced onions and large pieces of bread. A pleasing enough dish and one you might try if you want a novel dish.

Tasty Veal Cakes
Another favorite way of serving veal is to cut the meat in slices about half an inch thick. Fry in a pan in fresh butter seasoned with mixed herbs. Cut and fry some large tomatoes in slices. Place on top of the meat, pour over some fairly thick tomato sauce, garnish with parsley and serve immediately. A variation can be obtained by using mushrooms in place of the tomato, and frying some minced bacon with the veal and mushrooms. Veal cakes are simply scrumptious. Put half pound of veal through the food chopper. Then place in a stew-pan with cup of milk and allow to stew slowly for about three-quarters of an hour. Add one tablespoon of butter, salt and pepper to taste, teaspoon of lemon juice and a tablespoon of cream.

Allow to cool. Form into small cakes, dip in egg and breadcrumbs. Allow to remain for fifteen minutes. Dip again in egg and crumbs. Fry in boiling fat to a golden brown. When done, drain thoroughly and serve with curlyques of crisp bacon and slices of lemon.

NEWS IN BRIEF

TURTLE LAKE, Ws.—Although he lost his right arm in 1925, Lawrence S. Kiley, Turtle Lake, has won many prizes for rod and reel fishing. He spent long hours of practice to perfect casting with his left arm.

EDENTON, N. C.—The herring business is improving here. Tom Rinch caught 45,000 herring in one day on the Chowan River recently, along with 163 shad. Other fishermen have reported similar success.

PETERSBURG, Ind.—A worn stole pennies from Mrs. Henry Warner's mailbox for ornaments in its nest. Mrs. Warner missed the coins and watched the box, to discover the bird carrying them away.

TODAY'S WANTS

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

WANTED TO BUY—Old gold and silver, especially old teeth, old style wedding rings, watch cases, chains, etc. We pay spot cash, regardless of age or condition. Art the Jeweler.

VISITORS to the Century of Progress Exposition at Chicago should protect themselves with our Special Policy prepared for the protection of visitors. It pays medical bills up to $1,000 for any accident that may occur during a period of one month as well as $5,000 to a beneficiary in the event of accidental death. If you have an accident at your home, enroute to the Exposition, the expedition itself, on the return trip or otherwise the policy is in force. The cost is $5.00, or further particulars call or write, Z. W. Barnard, 338 E. State St., Credit Bureau office.

Want Ads

THE SALEM NEWS

Phone 1000

(30 Words or Less)

2 Insertions 60c

3 Insertions 70c

4 Insertions 80c

6 Insertions $1.10

Monthly Rate, $3.50

or $2.25 for Cash

More than 30 words, 1c extra per word with each two insertions.

Reductions of 10c from above prices for cash.

Copy for classified advertisements must be in this office by 11:30 p. m. on day of insertion. (11:30 on Saturday.)

WHITE AWAITS
NEW TAX SETUP

Important Measures Will Get Final Touches
Next Monday

(Continued from Page 1)

authorized by the federal government for industries engaged in interstate business.

Another so amends the uniform bond act that municipalities and other taxing districts may exceed present bond limitations in the issuance of bonds for public projects to give employment. For any project the federal government will pledge 30 percent of the labor and material cost leaving 70 per cent to be financed from the bond issued. The federal government also agrees to purchase the bonds.

The other measure provides for co-ordination of federal and state employment agencies under plans wher by the federal government pays most of the cost.

Budget Also On Deck

Then there are the biennial budget carrying appropriations for all purposes totaling in excess of $82,000,000, and the sundry claims bill carrying $500,000 to settle damage claims against the state and to make up former deficiencies in funds for the education of physically defective children.

Four bills have to do with investments in federal bonds, loan bonds, gas permits, building and loan associations to invest in such bonds while another permits them to exchange real estate mortgages for them. Two others authorize the banks and insurance companies to invest in the bonds.

The taxation program, claimed by its senate sponsors to be capable of producing approximately $30,000,000 annually, includes the one cent levy on each gallon of gasoline and gasoline products, and various fuel oils, and the re-enacted cigar tax, both for schools; the ten per cent amusement tax on admissions over 41 cents, ten per cent tax on cosmetics, $10 tax on vending machines over five cents, and the two cents a bottle beer cap tax. The governor has said he probably will permit the entire program to become law without his signature.

Relief For Tax Payer

The tax payer also was given some additional relief by three measures. One abrogates all penalties on real estate taxes and assessments for the first half of 1932; another authorizes political subdivisions to issue bonds against money they have tied up in closed banks and against the collateral real estate mortgages put up by the banks as security for public deposits. The other authorizes political subdivisions to pay 50 per cent of excessive assessments from current funds or from their share of gasoline taxes.

TODAY'S WANTS

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—A one-burner oil range used only two weeks. Price $2.00. Inquire at 215 East Fifth St., Salem, O.

SITUATION WANTED—Bookkeeper, stenographer, and typist, experienced in all lines. Desires part or full time work. Write Box 316, Letter G, Salem, Ohio.

FOR SALE—1931 Chevrolet coach, 6 wire wheels and trunk, low mileage; '32 Chevrolet 4-door sedan, 1930 Dodge sport roadster; Pontiac coupe, '35; 1930 Ford coach; Stutz Brougham, no reasonable offer refused; 1930 Buick DeLuxe coupe, perfect; 1930 Essex rumble seat coupe; 1929 Willys' Knight sport roadster, 4 new tires. The above cars priced to sell. Wilbur Coy & Co., Brick-Pontiac, 170 N. Lundy.

DAYTON AND GOODYEARTires and TubesTHOMAS
TIRE CO.

Zimmerman Garage Building

Phone 319 170 N. Lundy

J. H. England

DECORATE

PAINT UP!

Give the old walls and ceilings a chance to show their true colors! You'll be surprised to see how little it costs and what an improvement it is.

THE SALEM BUILDERS SUPPLY CO.

Coal, Builders' Supplies, Paints

Hardware and Plumbing

Phone 96 775 S. Ellsworth Ave.

King's Son and Commoner Bride

The fact that he had just surrendered all his royal rights did not cast a shadow over the happiness of Prince Alfonso, eldest son of the ex-King of Spain, as he escorted his commoner bride, the former Edelmira San Pedro, of Cuba, from the Sacred Heart Church, Cuchy, Switzerland, after their marriage. They plan to make their home in Lausanne.

Accidentally Shot

FINDLAY, O., July 6.—Shot in the chest when a gun with which he was target shooting discharged accidentally, Herbert Dillinger, 37, mayor of Hoytville, was in a serious condition.

STOCKHOLM—During the first three months of this year 242 new Swedish companies, with a total capital stock of 13,950,000 kronor, 13,350,000 kronor of which have been paid in, were registered with the government patent and registry office.

DEATHS

ULICNY FUNERAL
Funeral service for Miss Zelma Ulicny, 25, who died at the City hospital at 3:45 a. m. Wednesday, will be held at the Arbaugh funeral home at 3 p. m. Friday in charge of Rev. B. E. Rutsky, pastor of the American Emmanuel Lutheran church.

Burial will be made in Grandview cemetery. Friends may call at the home, 956 Homewood ave., at any time until noon Friday.

BREWERSVILLE, Ind. — John Salmstutz, 15, suffered a badly mangled hand and other injuries here when he pounded a dynamite cap with a stone. The boy found the explosive while playing in a quarry. His hand was blown almost completely off.

ELKO, Nev.—Four trout measuring 36 inches in length and weighing from 18 to 20 pounds, were caught at Pyramid Lake by A. M. Peterson and Everett Wayman, of Elko.

GERMAN INSTRUCTION

Tutoring 1st, 2nd year High School German, Room 204, High School building. Instruction begins at 10 A. M. Monday, July 10, and continues every w. t. day thereafter. Classes in advanced German, both elementary and syntax, and conversation to start soon. B. E. Rutsky.

Penney's Greatest
BLANKET
VALUESWhat a Warm Friend!
All-Wool BLANKET

5.90
pair

Buy Now and Save!

Here's a secret! We couldn't buy this blanket today for this price! So better hurry for yours! A big, heavy, extra heavy, 70x80, in five beautiful plaids. Extra-special bargain if you buy now!

Oversize — Plaid
BLANKET

It actually weighs 5-lbs. Full 80 x 90 inches, with 4-inch satin binding. Deep nap for soft, fluffy warmth!

2.98
Pair

BLANKET

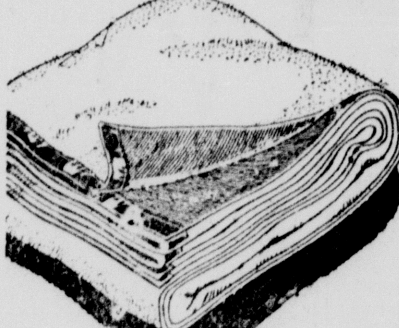

A stand-by and a bargain! Heavy, sturdy cotton plaid, stitched ends. Wears well, 80x90 inches. Buy now!

1.98
PAIR

Double Woven in Lovely
Boudoir Colors — Pure Wool

These prices won't last!

BLANKETS

3.98
each

The loveliest of reversible blankets! Full double bed size, 70 x 80, handsomely silk bound, full 3-lb. weight! This low price will soon go up!

Sheet
Blankets

Full Bed Size. Come in Plain Colors and Plaids. Fleecy Texture

39c

Ladies' Summer
Hats

Assorted Colors and Styles

57c Ea.

Deep Nap
Double Blankets

Double Bed Size Plaids

79c

Ladies' White Toyos

The New Large Styles

67c

100% All Wool
Single Blanket

Plain Colors — 70x80

$2.49

ODD LOT
Women's White
Pumps and Ties

$1.98

J.C. PENNEY CO. INC.

DEPARTMENT STORE

Corner State and Lundy

Salem, Ohio

"Brain Trust" Head in London

Assistant Secretary of State Raymond Moley (left), confidential adviser to President Roosevelt, pictured with Herbert Bayard Swope, outside the conference hall in London where the economic parleys are being held. Moley is acting as liaison between the President and the American delegation to the conference.

National, American League All-Star Teams Clash At Chicago

THE DAY IN SPORTS

OLD GUARD PASSES ON RUTH ON THE WAY OUT

THIS is a story that has been told as often as tides come in, but it must be told and it's always a good one. They'll linger a little longer, perhaps, but those of the old guard who have not already succumbed to the inevitable and unseen hand of time are doing it with hastened footsteps to make room for the flush and fire of youth.

Jack Dempsey is already gone. You see him pictured, now, with his arm around some youngster in a gesture of fatherly interest.

Babe Ruth is spoken of as the gentleman who is going away. Walter Hagen shot a 66 in the National Open at North Shore recently, but he didn't need it to lose. MacDonal Smith was a spectacle of pity as he stumbled over the course. Gene Sarazen was beaten before he started.

Johnny Goodman, 23, and Ralph Guldahl, 25, youths in the flush of conquest, were too much for these veterans.

THEY SAID that Max Baer was lucky, that he hit Schmeling with a lucky punch. Theoretically, of course, Baer was swinging at Schmeling and the German knew it. And by reason of the fact that Schmeling beat Sharkey there could be no question of the identity of the current champion.

At horse tracks they're shouting of the deeds of a 17-year-old baby-faced lad named Jackie Westmore. They mention Earl Sande as somebody who used to ride horses.

In the lightweight division of the prizefight industry, there is Barney Ross who lifted the title from Tony Canzoneri, the champion. Canzoneri reigned long and well but Father Time passed him.

IN BASEBALL they said Joe Cronin, still in his twenties, was too young to manage a major league ball club. Yet if Yankees fail, the Washington club will be there at almost there, which is enough to cool the scorn and derision of the scotch-fers.

In baseball, too, are the Tommy Bridges, the Oral Hildebrands, the Luke Applings and the "School-boy" Rows. They're replacing the Jack Quinns, the Lefty Groves, the Red Fabers and the Herb Pennocks.

Wrestling, long a haven for greybeards and grunners of early origin, too, is succumbing to the charge of youth, though the complications of the industry forbid any positive statements concerning the identity of any champion or champions. But they're making way for Joe Savoldi and Jim Browning. London is going. Lewis is gone, but not yet reconciled to his fate.

Youth must be served. It was ever thus.

"Pie" Traynor of the Pirates, who should be a very good judge of third base play, insists that Dick Geyelin, the far corner hopeful at Boston, is the best-looking youngster he's seen in a decade. The next great third baseman of the game, he says the youngster.

"Watch him come on within the next year," he warns. "He's got class—that little something extra that is bound to lift him above the mob."

The Dodgers reduced the overhead considerably when they lopped the high-salaried Lefty O'Doul and Watson Clark from the payroll and substituted Sambo Leslie, but wait until they get the new first sacker on the road. Can he pile up those meal checks? One of the greatest dodger destroyers ever let loose in big league dining room. It's a pleasure to watch him eat—he enjoys it so much.

The rise of "Blondie" Ryan and Jimmy Jordan gives the National league a stronger shortfield representation than it has enjoyed in a generation. Dick Bartell and Leo Durocher are the show-boat players of the league, but they are less than a step ahead of Ryan Jordan, Urbank of the Braves and Billy Jurges of the Cubs. Only Cincinnati is weak in the shortfield terrain.

Don't laugh, but if the Boston Braves are able to purchase or steal title to a first class pitcher during the next off season, they'll be a pennant threat in 1934.

They've got a stout outfield now that Hal Lee is supporting Wally Berger, and the new infield arrangement with Pinkie Whitney at second and Geyelin at third, has plenty of polish. It's a young team, too—on the way up.

"Babe Ruth contends that every ball player should take a few days off in every month. Possibly he's right. But it is odd that he never thought of that before. Time was when it would have taken a court order to keep the big boy out of a ball game. The years change all of our views, don't they—and so very forcibly.

Fight Results

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK—Isidoro Gastanaga, Spain, knocked out Les Kennedy, Long Beach, Calif., (6) Mike Beloise, New York, outpointed Mickey Barron, Scranton, Pa., (6).
CHICAGO—Johnny Phagan, Chicago, outpointed Jackie Purvis, Indianapolis, (10).

Bill Terry, manager of the Giants, looks up to his son. Although he just got out of grammar school, Bill, Jr., is taller than his dad.

Traveling the Title Road With Primo Carnera

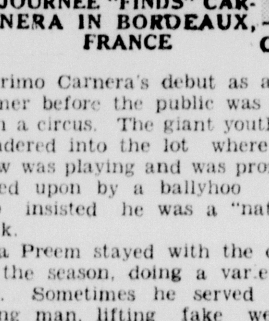

PRIMO AS STRONG MAN OF THE CIRCUS

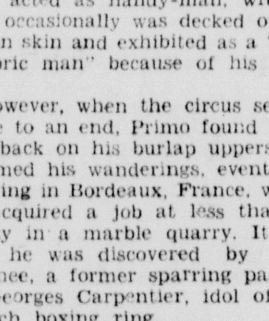

EARNED LESS THAN DOLLAR A DAY AS QUARRY WORKER

JOURNEE "FINDS" CARNERA IN BORDEAUX, FRANCE

CARNERA AS CAVEMAN AT LONDON BALL

His First Break

Attracted by the physical proportions of the young man with the backing on his feet, Journee spoke to Carnera. The result of the chat was that the French boxer wrote to his manager, Leon See, recommending that the latter look at the "find" with a view to developing him.

Fate seemed to be smiling on Da Preem, for when See received Journee's letter he was in the company of Walter (Goodtime) Charley Friedman, well-known American promoter, then scouting Europe for fighters. Friedman went with See to inspect Carnera, and with the instinct of a showman pronounced him a wonderful potential box office attraction. If not a world-beater as a fighter, See Carnera was signed to fight under the See banner.

There followed several months of hard work for Primo. He had never worn a boxing glove before being taken up by See, nor had he the vaguest notion of the manly art. But after seven months' coaching by Journee at the promoter's home outside Paris, the giant began to lose some of his clumsiness. Good, regular meals filled out his huge frame and Journee pronounced him ready for his ring debut.

In the meantime, in order to conform to French law, See had his gant protegee sign French citizenship papers, but there is still some confusion as to the validity of these. For French and Italian consuls wrangle intermittently about their countries' claims on Da Preem. They'll squabble still more now that he wears the world's title crown.

Carnera's first few bouts in France were the usual set-ups arranged by wily managers as a buildup. They didn't put much money in Primo's pocket, but they did get him a million dollars' worth of publicity. Both here and in Europe tales went the rounds of the

What The Stars Did Yesterday

(By Associated Press)

AL SIMMONS, White Sox—Rapid double and single against Indians; scored two runs, batted in two.

FLOYD VAUGHAN, Pirates—Clouted homer with two on in victory over Cardinals.

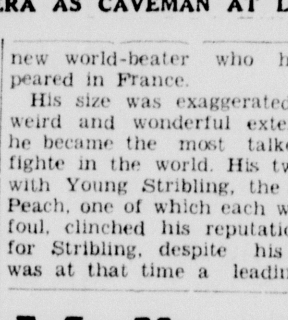

CHARLEY GRIM, Cubs—Doubled with bases full in first to send in three runs against Reds.

DICK OLIVER, Athletics—Pitched seven hit ball against Red Sox and struck out eight in first major league start.

The Rogers Hornsby-Hack Wilson feud is still raging. Hack Wilson is still saying that Rogers Hornsby is a liar. Rogers Hornsby is still saying that Hack Wilson is a liar.

CARNERA AS CAVEMAN AT LONDON BALL

His First Break

Attracted by the physical proportions of the young man with the backing on his feet, Journee spoke to Carnera. The result of the chat was that the French boxer wrote to his manager, Leon See, recommending that the latter look at the "find" with a view to developing him.

Fate seemed to be smiling on Da Preem, for when See received Journee's letter he was in the company of Walter (Goodtime) Charley Friedman, well-known American promoter, then scouting Europe for fighters. Friedman went with See to inspect Carnera, and with the instinct of a showman pronounced him a wonderful potential box office attraction. If not a world-beater as a fighter, See Carnera was signed to fight under the See banner.

There followed several months of hard work for Primo. He had never worn a boxing glove before being taken up by See, nor had he the vaguest notion of the manly art. But after seven months' coaching by Journee at the promoter's home outside Paris, the giant began to lose some of his clumsiness. Good, regular meals filled out his huge frame and Journee pronounced him ready for his ring debut.

In the meantime, in order to conform to French law, See had his gant protegee sign French citizenship papers, but there is still some confusion as to the validity of these. For French and Italian consuls wrangle intermittently about their countries' claims on Da Preem. They'll squabble still more now that he wears the world's title crown.

Carnera's first few bouts in France were the usual set-ups arranged by wily managers as a buildup. They didn't put much money in Primo's pocket, but they did get him a million dollars' worth of publicity. Both here and in Europe tales went the rounds of the

What The Stars Did Yesterday

(By Associated Press)

AL SIMMONS, White Sox—Rapid double and single against Indians; scored two runs, batted in two.

FLOYD VAUGHAN, Pirates—Clouted homer with two on in victory over Cardinals.

CHARLEY GRIM, Cubs—Doubled with bases full in first to send in three runs against Reds.

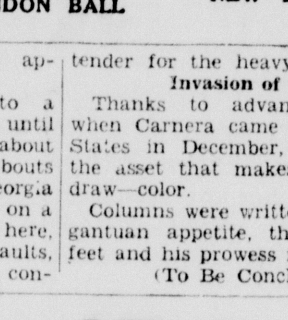

DICK OLIVER, Athletics—Pitched seven hit ball against Red Sox and struck out eight in first major league start.

The Rogers Hornsby-Hack Wilson feud is still raging. Hack Wilson is still saying that Rogers Hornsby is a liar. Rogers Hornsby is still saying that Hack Wilson is a liar.

Walter Johnson had not seen a big league game this season until he became manager of Cleveland early in June. Joe Cronin, Washington pilot, says the Indians have the best pitching staff in the junior circuit.

CARNERA AS CAVEMAN AT LONDON BALL

His First Break

Attracted by the physical proportions of the young man with the backing on his feet, Journee spoke to Carnera. The result of the chat was that the French boxer wrote to his manager, Leon See, recommending that the latter look at the "find" with a view to developing him.

Fate seemed to be smiling on Da Preem, for when See received Journee's letter he was in the company of Walter (Goodtime) Charley Friedman, well-known American promoter, then scouting Europe for fighters. Friedman went with See to inspect Carnera, and with the instinct of a showman pronounced him a wonderful potential box office attraction. If not a world-beater as a fighter, See Carnera was signed to fight under the See banner.

There followed several months of hard work for Primo. He had never worn a boxing glove before being taken up by See, nor had he the vaguest notion of the manly art. But after seven months' coaching by Journee at the promoter's home outside Paris, the giant began to lose some of his clumsiness. Good, regular meals filled out his huge frame and Journee pronounced him ready for his ring debut.

In the meantime, in order to conform to French law, See had his gant protegee sign French citizenship papers, but there is still some confusion as to the validity of these. For French and Italian consuls wrangle intermittently about their countries' claims on Da Preem. They'll squabble still more now that he wears the world's title crown.

Carnera's first few bouts in France were the usual set-ups arranged by wily managers as a buildup. They didn't put much money in Primo's pocket, but they did get him a million dollars' worth of publicity. Both here and in Europe tales went the rounds of the

What The Stars Did Yesterday

(By Associated Press)

AL SIMMONS, White Sox—Rapid double and single against Indians; scored two runs, batted in two.

FLOYD VAUGHAN, Pirates—Clouted homer with two on in victory over Cardinals.

CHARLEY GRIM, Cubs—Doubled with bases full in first to send in three runs against Reds.

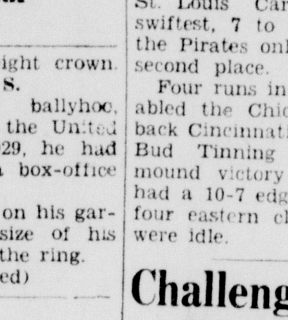

DICK OLIVER, Athletics—Pitched seven hit ball against Red Sox and struck out eight in first major league start.

The Rogers Hornsby-Hack Wilson feud is still raging. Hack Wilson is still saying that Rogers Hornsby is a liar. Rogers Hornsby is still saying that Hack Wilson is a liar.

Walter Johnson had not seen a big league game this season until he became manager of Cleveland early in June. Joe Cronin, Washington pilot, says the Indians have the best pitching staff in the junior circuit.

CARNERA AS CAVEMAN AT LONDON BALL

His First Break

Attracted by the physical proportions of the young man with the backing on his feet, Journee spoke to Carnera. The result of the chat was that the French boxer wrote to his manager, Leon See, recommending that the latter look at the "find" with a view to developing him.

Fate seemed to be smiling on Da Preem, for when See received Journee's letter he was in the company of Walter (Goodtime) Charley Friedman, well-known American promoter, then scouting Europe for fighters. Friedman went with See to inspect Carnera, and with the instinct of a showman pronounced him a wonderful potential box office attraction. If not a world-beater as a fighter, See Carnera was signed to fight under the See banner.

There followed several months of hard work for Primo. He had never worn a boxing glove before being taken up by See, nor had he the vaguest notion of the manly art. But after seven months' coaching by Journee at the promoter's home outside Paris, the giant began to lose some of his clumsiness. Good, regular meals filled out his huge frame and Journee pronounced him ready for his ring debut.

In the meantime, in order to conform to French law, See had his gant protegee sign French citizenship papers, but there is still some confusion as to the validity of these. For French and Italian consuls wrangle intermittently about their countries' claims on Da Preem. They'll squabble still more now that he wears the world's title crown.

Carnera's first few bouts in France were the usual set-ups arranged by wily managers as a buildup. They didn't put much money in Primo's pocket, but they did get him a million dollars' worth of publicity. Both here and in Europe tales went the rounds of the

What The Stars Did Yesterday

(By Associated Press)

AL SIMMONS, White Sox—Rapid double and single against Indians; scored two runs, batted in two.

FLOYD VAUGHAN, Pirates—Clouted homer with two on in victory over Cardinals.

CHARLEY GRIM, Cubs—Doubled with bases full in first to send in three runs against Reds.

DICK OLIVER, Athletics—Pitched seven hit ball against Red Sox and struck out eight in first major league start.

The Rogers Hornsby-Hack Wilson feud is still raging. Hack Wilson is still saying that Rogers Hornsby is a liar. Rogers Hornsby is still saying that Hack Wilson is a liar.

Walter Johnson had not seen a big league game this season until he became manager of Cleveland early in June. Joe Cronin, Washington pilot, says the Indians have the best pitching staff in the junior circuit.

ATHLETIC STAR WINS 1ST START

Oliver Twirls Good Ball Against Red Sox; Sox Trounce Indians

The Philadelphia major league club, both of which have been sadly in need of more pitching strength, have discovered some of it in unexpected places.

A couple of weeks ago the Phillies, more or less in desperation tossed Johnny Jackson, fresh from the University of Pennsylvania, in as a starting pitcher. He won the game, and has been taking his regular turn since then. Now the Athletics have made a similar successful experiment with Dick Oliver, a young right hander.

Beats Red Sox
Oliver, who has had a few tryouts in relief work, drew his first starting assignment yesterday and turned it into a personal triumph, by beating the Boston Red Sox 4 to 2. He gave only seven hits and fanned eight to shatter Boston's six game winning streak.

The Chicago White Sox, moved into fourth place with a 10-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians. With weak pitching on both sides, the Sox won by putting together six blows for seven runs in the sixth inning.

Tommy Bridges was invincible except in one inning as he hurled the Detroit Tigers to a 9-4 win over St. Louis in the third American league game. The Yankees-Washington contest was called off to allow the stars of both teams time to go to Chicago for today's all-star game.

Pirates Beat Cards
The Pittsburgh Pirates accomplished the day's best task in the National league by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in a 26 hit swift, 7 to 6. The victory left the Pirates only a game out of second place.

Four runs in the first inning enabled the Chicago Cubs to turn back Cincinnati's Reds 5-3 and gave Bud Timmering, his fifth straight mound victory although the Reds had a 10-7 edge in the hitting. All four eastern clubs in the national were idle.

Challenge Issued By Hillcrest "9"
Hillcrest tossers will meet the strong Westville lake team in a baseball clash at Westville next Sunday.

The Hillcrest team today issued a challenge to any Class A team in the Salem district and Tuesday defeated Franklin Square, 11-5. G. Stockwell, manager, can be reached by calling 1682.

Lineups of Tuesday's game—

HILLCREST	AB R H E
A. Allison, c	5 0 0 0
B. Fites, 1b	5 2 2 2
S. Zatkos, 3b	3 2 2 0
G. Scullion, ss	3 2 1 0
R. Griffith, lf	3 2 3 0
Krepps, 2b	5 2 3 0
J. Smith, cf	5 1 5 0
H. Brown, rf	3 0 0 1
L. Bailey, p	5 0 0 0
H. Allison, 3p	5 0 0 0
W. Tolson, ss	2 0 0 0
J. Clark, 2b	2 0 0 0
C. Walker, rf	2 0 0 0
Totals	45 11 16 4

FRANK'S SQUARE AB R H E

C. Ingledue, 2b	5 6 1 1
Casey, 1b	5 2 1 0
E. Blythe, c	4 0 0 0
B. Ingledue, ss	5 1 2 1
D. DeRhodes, rf	5 0 1 0
G. Grege, cf	4 0 0 0
L. Rogers, lf	2 0 0 0
Carroll, p	4 0 1 0
N. Ravel, 2b	4 1 1 0
Hussling, lf	2 1 0 0
Totals	40 5 8 3

Newhouse Tossers Defeat West End

Newhouse Service Station tossers scored three runs in the last of the seventh to win over West End players, 15-13, at Reilly stadium Wednesday.

The West Enders tallied nine runs in the sixth to tie the score, then went ahead in the seventh, only to lose out when the Newhouse club came to bat for their half of the inning.

Lineups:

WEST END	AB R H E
Wagner, c	4 0 1 0
C. Rogers, p	4 0 0 0
M. Hips, lf	4 1 3 1
Hoberich, rs	4 1 1 0
N. Roger, 3b	4 2 1 1
Cope, ss	3 2 2 1
Moore, 2b	4 1 1 1
T. Forlman, lf	3 2 2 0
Kent, cf	3 3 2 0
T. Rogers, rf	2 1 0 0
Totals	35 13 13 4

NEWHOUSE AB R H E

Fleeger, c	3 2 0 0
Grove, p	3 2 1 2
Hoffmaster, 1b	3 2 1 0
Pauline, 2b	3 1 2 0
Balta, 3b	3 1 1 0
Conrad, ss	4 2 1 0
Solman, rs	4 1 0 0
Cyrus, cf	4 0 1 2
Moore, rf	3 0 1 0
Wills, lf	3 2 1 0
Moffett, ss	2 1 0 1
Nebb, lf	1 1 0 0
Totals	35 15 9 5

Score by inning: West End 601 129 1—13 13 4 Newhouse 410 403 2—15 9 5

The "Walloping Kep" has been a grand comeback. Thought to be washed up a couple of years ago, he is having the best year of his career in betting home runs.

Leaders in Their Leagues

With an imposing total of 346,291 votes Al Simmons, star outfielder of the Chicago White Sox (left), stands out as the people's choice for the designation of baseball's greatest player. Next in rank is Chuck Klein, Philadelphia's batting star, who piled up 342,283 votes. He is shown with the trophy presented him as the most valuable player in the National League. Players' standing was revealed by ballot to select American and National League teams to meet in the "baseball game of the century" at Chicago on July 6.

Facts on All-Star Game

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 6—Facts on the all-star baseball game at Comiskey park today.

TIME—12:30 P. M., central standard time, or 11 A. M., tomorrow if weather interferes today.

ATTENDANCE—A capacity crowd of 49,000.

The probable batting order:

Umpires—Dinner, (AL) at plate.

K'zy (NL) at first base.

McGowan (AL) at second base.

Rugler (NL) at third base.

National	American
Bartell, Philadelphia, ss	Averill, Cleveland, cf
Frisch, St. Louis, 2b	Gehring, Detroit, 2b
Kleyn, Philadelphia, rf	Ruth, New York, rf
P. Wanner, Pittsburgh, cf	Gehrig, New York, 1b
Terry, New York, 1b	Simmons, Chicago, lf
O'Doul, New York, lf	Cronin, Washington, ss
Traynor, Pittsburgh, 3b	Dykes, Chicago, 3b
Hartnett, Chicago, c	Dickey, New York, c
Hallahan, St. Louis, p	Crowder, Washington, p

Bidgood Bulldogs Defeat Christians

LISBON, July 6—Bidgood Bulldogs proved too much for the Christian church club and gained an easy 12-5 victory in a league game at the fairgrounds Wednesday.

Lineups:

CHRISTIANS	AB R H PO A E
Evans, 3b	5 0 0 2 4 1
Nickelson, cf	5 1 1 0 0 0
Gilbert, ss	4 0 0 4 6 1
Henderson, 2b	3 0 0 2 3 0
Gintz, lf	5 0 1 1 1 0
Clunk, rf	5 0 1 1 0 0
Hiscox, 1b	4 2 1 11 0 2
James, c	3 2 1 2 2 0
Morian, p	4 0 0 1 0 0
Totals	38 5 8 24 16 4

BULLDOGS AB R H PO A E

G. Wolfe, 3b	4 1 1 1 0 2
Howard, c	3 1 2 2 1 0
Springer, rf	5 1 1 1 0 0
Lea, lf	4 3 2 6 0 1
Tough, ss	3 1 0 1 0 1
Longshore, 1b	4 1 2 7 0 0
E. Wolfe, cf	5 2 3 2 0 1
Johnson, 2b	4 1 2 4 2 0
Helman, p	4 1 2 0 0
Merriman, lf	2 0 0 1 0 0
Totals	38 12 14 27 3 5

Christian Ch. 000 122 000—5 8 4 Bulldogs .033 400 20x—12 14 5

Softball Standings

TEAM	W.	L.	Pct.
Calkins Chicks	5	1	.834
Salem Hardware	4	1	.800
United Gears	5	2	.714
Famous Dairy	3	3	.500
Mullins	3	3	.500
Salem China	3	3	.500
Deming	2	4	.333
Schafer Billiards	1	5	.167
American Legion	1	5	.167

Barton's S

154 NORTH

AN AD BELOW WILL RENT YOUR FURNISHED ROOM, HOME, COTTAGE OR OFFICE

Phone 1000

SALEM NEWS

Classified Rates

(30 Words or Less)
 1 Insertion 50c
 2 Insertions 80c
 3 Insertions 70c
 4 Insertions 80c
 7 Insertions $1.10
 Monthly Rate, $3.50
 or $3.25 Cash

More than 30 words, 1c extra per word with each two insertions.

Reductions of 10c from above prices for cash.
 Copy for classified advertisements must be in this office by 12:30 p. m. on day of insertion. (11:30 on Saturday).

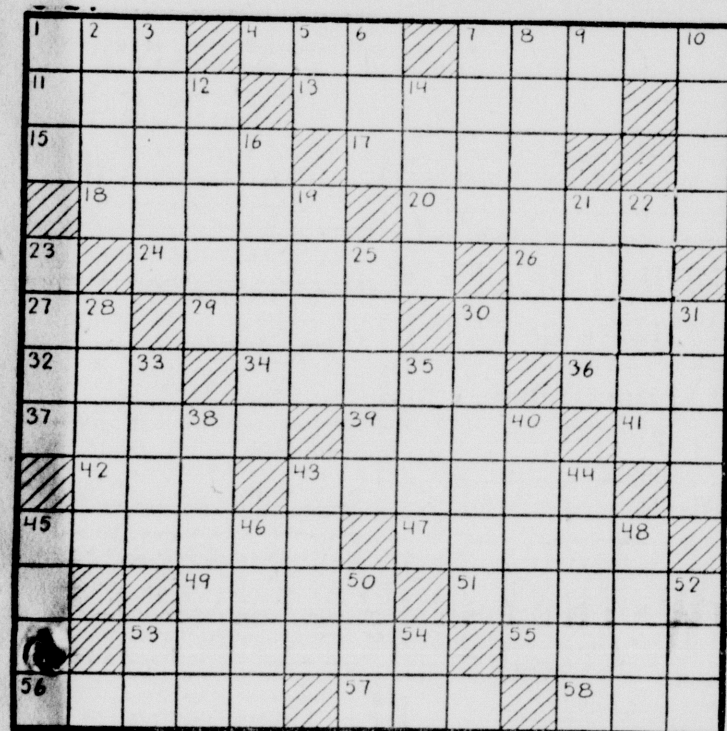

FOR SALE

BLACK RASPBERRIES—Bring your containers and pick your own while they are thick. Also berries for canning delivered. Prices reasonable; get your orders in early. Wesley Whinery, Phone 41-R-21 Winona, Ohio.

PUBLIC SALE—Household furniture, including a few antiques, July 8 at 1 o'clock, 711 Franklin St. Mary Catherine Hanna.

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

HORIZONTAL

- 1—terminate
- 4—tilt
- 7—small pieces of pastries
- 11—positive
- 13—feminine
- 15—aver
- 17—lofty
- 18—throng
- 20—pendent mass of ice
- 24—unfold
- 26—age
- 27—part of to be
- 29—organ of hearing (pl.)
- 30—decorate
- 32—encountered
- 34—birds' habitations
- 35—vegetable
- 36—combine into one product
- 39—consumes
- 41—musical note
- 42—highest note of the Guido scale
- 43—legacies

VERTICAL

- 1—worm
- 2—hard shell fruits
- 3—attracts
- 5—on the supposition that
- 6—fondle
- 7—soapstone
- 8—united
- 9—prefix back
- 10—auction
- 12—stockade
- 14—female servant
- 16—journey made to carry a message
- 19—nothing but
- 21—reap
- 22—household gods
- 23—sheep
- 25—beasts of burden
- 28—affray
- 30—flowers
- 31—spike
- 33—narrate
- 35—burdensome work
- 38—unregenerate condition
- 40—represses
- 43—first man
- 44—breaks suddenly
- 45—flesh of an animal
- 46—goddess of discord
- 48—large lake
- 50—youth
- 52—Greek letter
- 53—symbol for pelopium
- 54—Behold!

Here with is the solution to Saturday's Puzzle.

PSYCHOANALYST
 RUE ERGO HOUR
 EN HALE PARMA
 T BORE BASE N
 EGRET SORA US
 RAID SILT ELF
 NIT HELD LENE
 AT BUNK MOLAR
 T CANT CONS E
 UNLIT FORE SN
 RIOT BARE SAC
 ANA TOTA TONE
 LAKEDWELLINGS

Copyright, 1933, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Carpenter tools and two large chests. 75-lb. side ice refrigerator; large gas range. 3 brass bird cages. Inquire 690 Woodland Ave.

PLANTS FOR SALE—Cabbage, the leading varieties, early and late; plants ready to move. Special offer, 12 rock plants for $1.00. Wilm's Perennial Gardens, 1/2 mile out South Ellsworth road. Phone 21-F-2

BUY A HOT WEATHER FAN—A Maytag washer, makes it easy and inexpensive to have lots of fresh laundry. Priced as low as $59.50. Stamp Home Stores, Inc. Phone 75.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT—Five-room apartment and store room. Garage. Nice place to build up a good business. 664 So Union Ave.

FOR RENT—Modern, 6-room house, located at 177 So. Union Ave. For further information, call R. B. Maxwell. Phone 914-M.

FOR RENT—A fine six-room apartment, unfurnished; nicely finished; good neighborhood. To small family, $30. No dogs permitted. Phone 1667.

LOST

LOST—Open face Illinois watch in tie H. W. on back. Lost at Lake Placid. Reward if returned to H. D. Weaver, 255 W. Ohio Ave., Sebring, Ohio. Phone 110.

WANTED

WANTED—Warm air heating equipment installer to work locally. Must be well experienced and give good references. Answer by mail, Box 316, Letter E, Salem, Ohio.

WANTED—Offices to clean and house cleaning by day. Inquire at 1369 Maple St.

SITUATION WANTED—Girl willing to do housework half days in exchange for room and board. Write Box 316, Letter F, Salem, Ohio.

WANTED TO BUY—A family cow. Cheap. Will pay cash. Write or inquire Charles Colell, Brookwood Coal Mine, R. D. 4, 1 1/2 miles from Salem, Ohio.

BEAUTY PARLORS

COMING TO SALEM on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week, Madame Deloris, Beauty Specialist. Ten years experience in permanent waving. Steam oiled push-up waves with ringlet ends guaranteed. Call for appointments. Phone 519-R, 563 Ohio Ave.

HOLLYWOOD SHOP—Continuing our regular $2.95 Old Wave, for special price of $1.50 for one or $2.75 for two; any length of hair; any amount of curls. We specialize in Ringlet ends. Also Nestle or Bonal Wave, $3.50. Croquingnole Wave, $3.75. All finger waves 2c until Sept. 1st. 170 S. Lincoln Ave. Phone 589-J.

EYEBROW ARCHING—Ladies! The New Nestle Automatic Method of eyebrow arching. Rapid, painless. Marcel Shoppe, Mrs. Emma Bonfert, 673 Ohio Ave., Phone 1738, Salem, Ohio.

MISCELLANEOUS

NOTICE—Buy with Home Savings pass books, 100% allowed. Specials on dresses, $4.95 up; coats, $9.95 up; men's suits, topcoats, $15.00 up. Ditt's-Roger's Co., 233 W. Federal. Phone 34606, Youngstown.

AUTO REPAIR

KORNEAU'S GARAGE—For quality workmanship at the most reasonable prices. Try us for your auto repairing. All work guaranteed. 433 West State St. Phone 150. Residence, 797-R. Open Sundays till noon.

Monk's Garage

General Repair

Phone 103 292 W. State St.

AUTO REPAIR

WE SPECIALIZE in washing, greasing, waxing, polishing and simonizing. Drive in and give us a trial. Pleasing you keeps us in business. Phone 1262-J or 289 Daugherty and Hively's Garage.

GENERAL AUTO REPAIRING

No job too small and no job too large. Agents for Willard Battery and Stromberg carburetors. Stal-smith and Ingledue, Sugartree Court.

BUSINESS CARDS

HAUGHTON & BROWN'S Garage Beauty Shoppe. Superfluous wrinkles removed by a painless de-wrinkling process. Fall fenders lifted and re-arched, promptly and properly. Lost curves restored with all their original appeal. West State at Benton road.

LAWN MOWERS taken apart cleaned, ground, repaired and adjusted. Trimmers, sythes, and scissors ground. Work guaranteed. Leave orders at Salem Hardware or drop me a card. Wm. Underwood, 179 Sharp Ave.

TIME TABLE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
 Schedule of Trains at Salem, O.
 Effective April 30, 1933.

Westbound
 No. 105—1:01 a. m.—To Toledo and Detroit Daily.
 No. 202—1:27 a. m. To Cleveland Daily.
 No. 303—9:29 a. m. To Cleveland Daily.
 No. 125—10:00 a. m. To Chicago Daily.
 No. 43—11:21 a. m. To Chicago Daily.
 No. 117—1:56 p. m. To Toledo and Detroit Daily.
 No. 113—3:36 p. m. To Chicago Daily.
 No. 649—6:03 p. m. To Alliance Daily except Sunday.
 No. 512—6:32 p. m. To Cleveland Daily.
 No. 323—9:20 p. m. To Cleveland Daily.
 *Note: No. 323 connects at Alliance for train leaving at 9:45 p. m. for Chicago.

Eastbound
 No. 202—3:17 a. m. Cleveland to Pittsburgh Daily.
 No. 106—5:44 a. m. Stop to discharge passengers from Toledo and Beyond Daily.
 No. 54—6:46 a. m. Flag stop to receive and discharge passengers Daily.
 No. 648—7:53 a. m. Local train to Pittsburgh Daily except Sunday.
 No. 124—9:35 a. m. Stops to discharge passengers from Canton and Beyond Daily.
 No. 312—9:56 a. m. Cleveland to Pittsburgh Daily.
 No. 115—1:38 p. m. Chicago to Pittsburgh Daily.
 No. 328—6:38 p. m. Cleveland to Pittsburgh Daily.
 No. 52—6:58 p. m. Stops to discharge passengers from Toledo Division.
 No. 22—8:21 p. m.—Flag stop to receive and discharge passengers; New York & Washington Sleepers Daily.

BUSINESS CARDS

CALL 1687-M for carpenter work of all kinds. Oak floors a specialty. Lawn mowers sharpened. Homer Rotzel, 518 E. Sixth St.

UPHOLSTERING, slip covers, over-drapes. Any kind of upholstered furniture repaired, recovered, re-modeled. Also living room suites made to order, either davenport, club chair, wing chair. Latest samples of coverings on hand. Prompt and reasonable. J. R. Reinthal, 150 West Seventh St. Phone 831.

LAWN MOWER SHARPENING, cleaning, repairing and adjusting. We sell used lawn mowers and parts. Also, saw filing, setting and gunning. We have latest automatic machines which do perfect work. Reasonable prices. Called for and delivered. G. J. Ryser, 403 W. Pershing St. Phone 629.

WITH $500.00 DOWN

Fine six-room modern house, located on Ellsworth Ave., and only two blocks from business district. Wonderful shade and a real buy at $2,500.00 with $500.00 down.

I have several farms of all sizes; also filling stations and business opportunities. Buy now before prices advance!

BURT CAPEL

521 East State Street

Phone 314

In an advertisement Henry Ford says: "Methods of self-help are numerous and great numbers of People have made the stimulating discovery that they need not depend on employers to find work for them—they can find work for themselves." If you can repair electric fans, door bells, washers, motors, etc., put an ad under "Business Service" below and tell the readers of this paper that your prices are in keeping with the times.

REAL ESTATE

REAL ESTATE

HERE IS YOUR CHANCE TO GET STARTED IN THE COUNTRY!

26 ACRES on a new cement road. Good barn. Good spring of water. Also good soil. Price $700 on terms.
 10 ACRES, with on buildings. Ideal farm land in a high class neighborhood on a hard road. Electric lights available. Price $700 on terms to suit the buyer.

ABOUT 78 1/2 ACRES located about 9 miles from Salem. Good neighborhood. Farm lays nicely. Good comfortable house of eight rooms. Barn of no value. Some fruit. Price $2,200 on terms or might consider city property at the right price.

FRED D. CAPEL

212-213 Home Savings and Loan Building, Salem, O. Phone 321

GOOD BUSINESS LOCATION

Good 7-room modern home with double garage and large lot, 184 South Lincoln, priced at a figure that will sell. Grand location for business of any kind. If you want out of the high rent district, here is something worth considering. Look this property over; you can rent or buy. SEE ME!

During the remainder of July and August, owing to the summer vacation period, my ad is to be discontinued. I wish to thank my patrons all for their courtesy and good will. Watch for my ad in September at which time I shall be yours for better service and greater activity.

HARRY ALBRIGHT, Realty Specialist

FOR SALE LIKE RENT

Two good homes; all modern conveniences—Of 6 and 7 rooms; nice locations on Franklin St., at one-half their former value; immediate possession.

For sale, farms with coal mines in operation—65, 70, 82, 93, 100, 102, 126 and 136 acres; all have buildings and range in price from $1500 to $7500.

O. J. ASTRY

224 Broadway

Phone 177

AT HALF PRICE

Good two-family dwelling, six rooms on each side, all modern conveniences. Slate roof, beautiful shade trees. Three acres of ground that has been sub-divided into lots with nice frontage. Nice location. A real bargain.

R. C. KRIDLER

267 East State Street

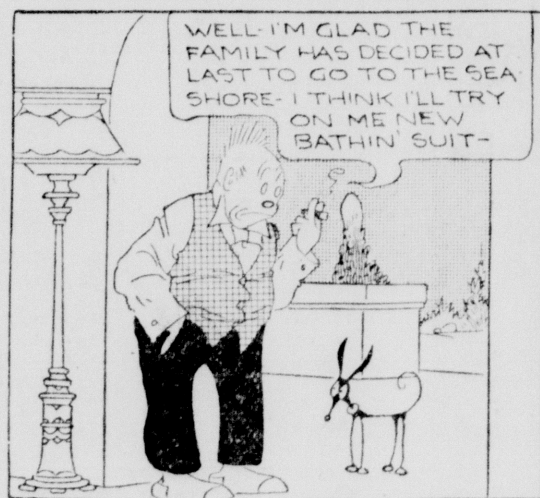

Phone 115

Let The News Follow You On Your Vacation — A Welcome Companion For Your Days Away

THE GUMPS—THE DATE AT EIGHT

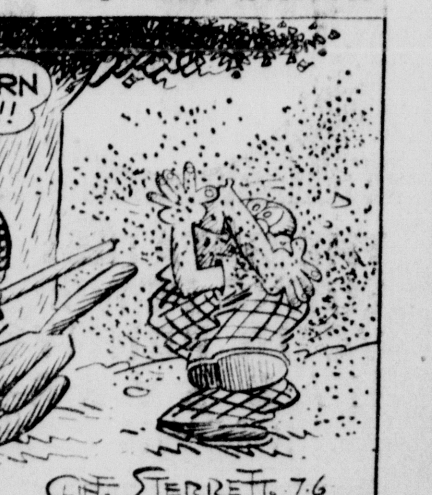

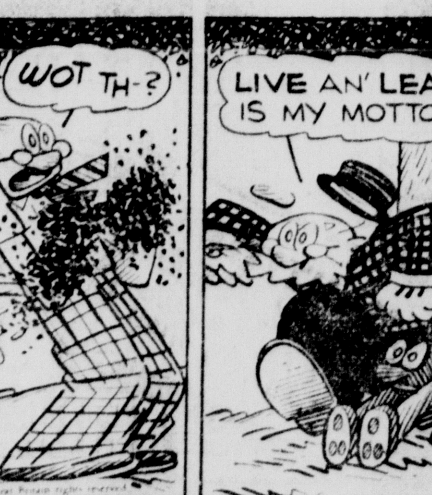

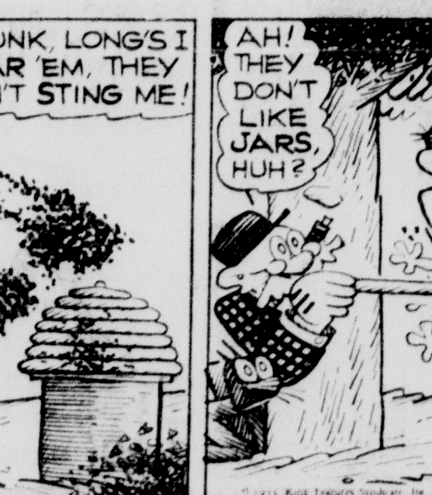

BRINGING UP FATHER

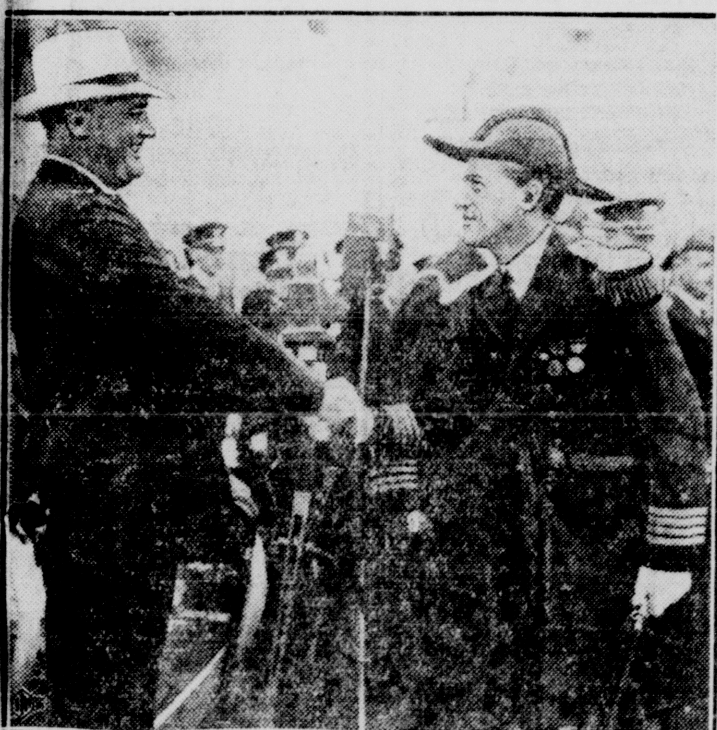

By George McManus

POLLY AND HER PALS

By Cliff Sterrett

Welcome to Commander-in-Chief

Bronzed and looking fit as a fiddle, President Roosevelt is greeted by Captain John M. Smealie, commander of the U. S. S. Indianapolis, as the Navy's commander-in-chief boarded the cruiser at Campobello Island, New Brunswick, for his return to Washington following his vacation cruise up the New England coast.

:: Radio Programs ::

A new dramatic series called "Drake's Drums" is to begin Monday on WEAF-NBC. The feature will be heard twice weekly, on Mondays and Saturdays, and will combine the story of a cabin boy who sailed with Sir Francis Drake with songs typical of the period. James and Marjorie Jacobson are the authors of the script, which is designed primarily for children, but will appeal to adult listeners as well. Both weekly broadcasts are at 5:30 p. m.

TODAY

4:45. WTAM. Echoes of Erin
KDKA. WLW. Orphan Annie
WTAM. Pie Plant Pete
5:30. WHK. WADC. Skippy
6:00. WHK. Baseball scores
6:20. WHK. Charles Carille
7:00. KDKA. Serenaders
WESTAM. Rudy Valle
8:00. WTAM. Capt. Henry's Showboat
KDKA. Death Valley Days
9:00. WTAM. Landt Trio & White
9:30. WTAM. Ray Perkins
9:50. WHK. Perkins' Fellers
10:00. KDKA. WGAR. Bedtime Parade
10:30. WHK. WADC. Guy Lombardo
WTAM. Webster's Orchestra
11:00. WTAM. Hawaiian music
WHK. Day's band
11:30. WTAM. Scott's Orchestra
12:00. WTAM. Yates' Orchestra

TOMORROW

6:30. WTAM. Doc Whipple
7:30. WTAM. Morning Glee Club
KDKA. Lew White, organist

Radio Index

WEAF (New York) 660
WJZ (New York) 760
WABC (New York) 860
WTAM (Cleveland) 1070
WBBM (Chicago) 770
KWW (Chicago) 1020
WLW (Cincinnati) 700
WADC (Akron) 1320
KDKA (Pittsburgh) 990
WHK (Cleveland) 1390
WENR (Chicago) 870

NBC (WEAF) broadcasts are heard through WTAM and WENR.
NBC (WJZ) broadcasts are heard through KDKA, WLW and KWW.
Columbia (WABC) broadcasts are heard through WADC, WHK, and WBBM.

8:30. KDKA. Breakfast Club
WTAM. WLW. Cherno
WADC. Uncle Louie
9:00. WTAM. Breen and DeRose
KDKA. Phil Harris' Orch.
WLW. Plantation Days
9:15. KDKA. Clara, Lu and Em
9:30. WTAM. Strolling Fiddler
WLW. Tony Cabooch
WADC. Luxembourg Gardens
10:15. WADC. Ambassadors
11:00. WTAM. Gene Arnold
WLW. Clyde and Carl
WADC. Harold Knight Orch.
11:30. WTAM. String Ensemble
11:45. WLW. Rhythmic Serenade
Noon. WTAM. Dick Fiddler's Orch.
12:30. WLW. KDKA. Farm and

Home hour
WTAM. Ensemble
1:00. WTAM. Magic of Speech
1:45. WADC. Educational Feature
2:00. WTAM. Chas. Gilbert Orch.
WADC. Salon Orchestra
KDKA. WLW. Betty and Bob
2:15. WTAM. Famous Loves
WADC. Alex Semler
WLW. Words and Music
2:45. KDKA. Jack Turner
3:30. WLW. WTAM. South Sea Tropic
WADC. Army Band
4:15. WTAM. Three Stamps
WADC. Irish tenor
5:00. WTAM. Arnold and Amber
5:15. WTAM. Viennese Ensemble
WLW. Dance Orchestra
5:30. WTAM. Four Aces
WLW. Musical Highlights
5:45. WTAM. Tarzan
WLW. KDKA. Lowell Thomas
6:00. WLW. KDKA. Amos & Andy
WTAM. Pie Plant Pete
6:15. WTAM. Ray Knight Cuckoo
KDKA. Rounders
WLW. Gene and Glenn
6:30. WTAM. Drifting and Dreaming
WLW. Bob Newhall
KDKA. "Pastoral"
6:45. WTAM. Goldbergs
WLW. Riff Bros. Quartet
7:00. WTAM. Bourdon's Orchestra
Jessica Dragonette, Cavaliers
WLW. Gene Durrell's Orch.
WADC. Nino Martini
KDKA. Players
KDKA. Singers
7:15. KDKA. Singers
7:30. WLW. Detectives B. & B.
WADC. Bar X Days, Nights
KDKA. Potash & Purlmaster
7:45. KDKA. Phil Cook
WLW. Orchestra
8:00. WTAM. WLW. Tom Howard and Jeannie Lang
KDKA. Let's Listen to Harris
WADC. Irvin S. Cobb
8:15. WADC. Street Singer
8:30. WTAM. Victor Young's Orchestra

WLW. Captain Calls
KDKA. Phil Baker
WLW. Jack Benny
9:00. WADC. Lou Holtz and Grace Moore, Hayton's Orch.
WTAM. Let's Go Fishing
KDKA. First Nighter
9:15. WTAM. Navy Band
9:30. WTAM. Lum & Abner
WLW. Puddle Family
KDKA. William Hard
WADC. Edwin C. Hill
9:45. WTAM. Let's Go Fishing
WADC. Columbians
WLW. Lloyd Huntley Orch.
10:00. WTAM. Lum and Abner
WLW. Zero Hour
10:15. WADC. Little Jack Little
10:30. WLW. Unsolved Mysteries
WTAM. Mark Belasco
10:45. KDKA. Jack Fisher's Orch.
KDKA. Jack Pettis' Orch.
11:00. WTAM. Men and a Maid
WADC. Freddie Martin Orch.
WLW. KDKA. Mills' Playboys
11:15. WTAM. Ernie Holst's Orch.
11:30. WADC. Joe Hayes' Orch.
WLW. Ace Brigade's Orch.
WTAM. Harold Sterns Orch.
KDKA. Dick Messner's Orch.

Golf Slice Cause of Court Suit

NEW YORK, July 6.—A slice on a golf ball is "not an act of God," Municipal Court Justice Pette has ruled, in awarding $750 damages to a woman who had been struck by a golf ball while driving her automobile. The plaintiff was Miss Anne B. Gleason, sister of Helen Gleason, Metropolitan Opera soprano.

In ruling against the contention of Arthur J. Knorr, who drove the golf ball, that the accident was an act of God, the judge declared:

"A golf ball in itself is an innocent, lawful article and so is the club that drives it. But, when driven, the ball attains great speed and may thus become a dangerous and destructive object."

Here and There :: About Town

Will Face Grand Jury
Will Face Mullinger of Salem today entered a plea of not guilty before Mayor J. M. Davidson to a charge of breaking and entering filed against him in the theft of merchandise last week from the Veterans of Foreign Wars home.

He was bound over to the next grand jury on $1,500 bond.

Charles Snyder, N. W. Albany, was fined $1 and costs on a charge of careless driving.

Nomination and election of officers was held at a meeting of Salem chapter No. 60. Women of the Moosehead Legion Wednesday evening at the home, East State st.

A good attendance is desired at the meeting next Wednesday when the officers will be installed. Refreshments will be served at that meeting.

City Hospital Notes
Gretta Vaughn of Washingtonville, Mrs. W. R. Crisenberry of Salem, and June Curran of North Lima have entered the Salem City hospital for surgical treatment.

John and Ralph Newell of Salem had their tonsils removed this morning at the hospital.

Receive Petition
Perry Lodge No. 185, F. & A. M., received one petition at a meeting last night at the Masonic temple, East State st.

Plans were announced for a special meeting July 28.

At Greenford Church
A lawn fete will be held Saturday evening at the Greenford Christian church. The Columbian American Legion band consisting of 28 pieces will furnish music.

Goes With Lindy

Henry Eysenback, of Brooklyn, figures he's just about the luckiest boy in the world. He's aboard the S. S. Jelling, mother-ship of Col. C. A. Lindbergh's Arctic expedition, as mess-boy, and is looking forward eagerly to adventures with his hero.

MAJORS BATTLE IN "STAR" GAME

(Continued from Page 1)

Lonnie Warnke, pride of the Chicago Cub staff, replaced him. Simmons hit into a double play, Bartell to Frisch to Terry. Dykes singled into left Cronin flied to Berger. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

FOURTH INNING
NATIONALS—Alvin Crowder of the Senators replaced Gomez in the box for the Americans. Simmons made a beautiful running catch of Frisch's long drive. Klein was out. Gehrig unassisted. Haty fouled to Dykes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

AMERICANS—Rick Ferrell flied to Klein. Crowder was out, when he grounded to Frisch. Chaplain grounded to Chapman. No runs, no hits, no errors.

FIFTH INNING
NATIONALS—Terry was thrown out by Gehring. Berger lined a vicious drive towards Cronin who stopped it and tossed him out. It was a great play. Gehrig dropped Bartell's foul. It was an error.

AMERICANS—Gehring flied to Berger. Ruth singled to short center. Gehrig struck out. Simmons singled. Dykes forced Simmons. Bartell to Frisch. No runs, two hits, no errors.

SIXTH INNING
NATIONALS—O'Doul batted for J. J. Breen. He grounded out. Gehring to Gehrig. Warnke tripled along the right field foul line. Warnke scored when Martin was out on a slow grounder. Dykes-Gehrig. Frisch cracked the ball into the lower deck of the right field pavilion for a home run. Klein singled to left center and "Lefty" Grove began warming up for the Americans. Haty was out. Dykes to Gehrig. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

AMERICANS—Hartnett replaced Wilson behind the bat for the Nationals. Cronin singled. Cronin was out on a sacrifice bunt. Terry to Frisch. Earl Averill batted for Crowder. He singled, scoring Cronin. Chapman singled. Gehring flied to Klein. Ruth struck out. One run, three hits, no errors.

Rise of Femininity Shown In State's New Comic Hit

ONE of the most novel, unusual and funniest films of the year, "The Warriors' Husband" will come to the State theater for a two-day run beginning Friday. With this picture will be "Life in the Raw," Zane Grey's latest story and starring George O'Brien and Greta Nis-

Good Cast In Clever Story
"The Warriors' Husband" boasts an excellent cast consisting of Elissa Landi (who did such fine work in "I Loved You Wednesday") Marjorie Rambeau, Ernest Truex (who, except for "Waistling In The Dark" is new to the screen but well known on the stage), David Manners, Helene Madison (the swimming champion) and Helen Ware.

The story of the picture is set in that mythical period of world history when countries were ruled by Amazons, when women did the fighting and the work and men took life easy.

Reversing the accepted order of things, the picture takes full advantage of the comic character of the situation. Women are seen as political leaders and intellectual leaders. Men are the ones whose place is in the home to keep the traditional home fires burning.

Good Satire
"Tis the women who propose and arrange "dates" instead of the male sex. The whole thing is a brilliant satire on modern civilization. It burlesques the masculine type of women, so prevalent nowadays and pokes subtle fun at the women who aspire to wear the family trousers.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Miss Landi is cast as Antiope, the role that Katharine Hepburn played on the stage before her rise to screen honors, and she is said to give an excellent characterization. For comedy no actor of today excels Truex and this picture should boast him high.

Elissa Landi
Claudia Coleman and Maude Ebourne.

THEATER audiences will shiver in their shoes at tonight's feature—"Murders in the Zoo"—starring Charlie Ruggles and Lionel Atwill with a supporting cast including Randolph Scott, Kathleen Burke and Gail Patrick.

Most of the picture is laid in the zoo where a mad zoologist, (Atwill) insanely jealous of his wife mysteriously kills two men. His wife, realizing his guilt, attempts to tell authorities but is murdered on the way.

There are plenty of thrills and excitement in this one and the particular scene where Atwill lets loose all the animals of the zoo is particularly nerve wracking and thrilling.

Develop the profitable habit of reading all advertisements in The News every night.

DANCE!
Nightly, including Sunday
DIMMICK'S
Orchestra
CRAIG BEACH
25c-Per Person-25c

STATE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Today Only
Terror-Swept Epic of a Monster
More Savage Than the Beasts
He Caged!

MURDERS IN THE ZOO
A PARAMOUNT PICTURE
-- With --
Charlie Ruggles
Lionel Atwill
Kathleen Burke
Randolph Scott
Also Comedy and Novelties

TOMORROW & SATURDAY
WE ARE HAPPY TO OFFER THESE
2 FINE PICTURES
DOUBLE FEATURE BILL!
HIT NO. 1—
Women Wear the Pants
In This Riotous
Comedy!

"All right, then, WALK home, you flat tire!"

THE WARRIORS' HUSBAND
with
Elissa LANDI
Marjorie Rambeau
Ernest Truex
David Manners
— AND HIT NO. 2 —
A CLASSIC OF THE WEST!

Zane Grey's
LIFE
IN THE RAW
with George
O'Brien
A Fox
Picture
Cartoon and News

McCulloch's

SUMMER HALF HOLIDAYS START NEXT WEEK

Store Closes at Noon Wednesdays During July and August

EXTRA! JULY SALE EXTRA!

WASH GOODS

Printed Organdies, 40 In. Wide
Printed Batiste, 39 In. Wide
Printed Dimities, 36 In. Wide
Printed Crepes, 36 In. Wide
Printed Suitings, 36 In. Wide
Values to 39c Yard

25^c

A Yard

Westinghouse and Majestic
Electric
Refrigerators
$99.50 UP
Buy Now!

Thor Washers
The Leader Since 1906
Price $59.50 UP

Brand New
General Electric
Hot Point Range
Now Only $79.50

Vacation Needs
Guitars
Ukuleles
Sport Radio & Case
String Instruments

Pianos
Special Friday and Saturday
Was $295.00
Now $97.50
Beautiful Upright
Free Lessons

See the New Majestic Auto Radio
Super Six Tube
Performance of Nine
$39.95
See Window Display

Band Instruments
Bargains in Saxophones,
Trumpets, Trombones,
Clarinet

Used Ice Boxes
$2.95 UP
While They Last

Finley Music Co.

"Salem's Music and Electric Refrigeration Center"
Phone 14 Phone 14

GUARANTEED
FOR 5 YEARS

PAINT Sale!

BUY A GALLON AT THE $2.85
REGULAR PRICE OF

AND GET ANOTHER GALLON
FOR ONE CENT

BUY AS MUCH AS YOU WISH

PARA READY MIXED
HOUSE PAINT
14 BEAUTIFUL COLORS TO CHOOSE FROM

JAY'S

ACCESSORY STORE
138 South Broadway Salem, Ohio

THE GREATEST BUYING POWER
YOUR PENNY
HAS EVER KNOWN

QUANTITIES
UNLIMITED
YOU CAN BUY AS MUCH AS YOU WISH

SUPER VALUES

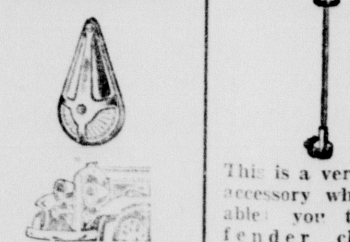

Rim Size	4-Ply	6-Ply
4-20-21	$4.20	$7.19
4-20-20	$4.49	$7.30
4-20-21	$4.69	$7.55
4-25-19	$5.10	$7.89
4-25-20	$5.30	$8.15
4-25-21	$5.90	$8.45
5-00-17	$6.50
5-00-19	$5.48	$8.60
5-00-20	$5.65	$8.85
5-00-21	$5.83	$9.10
5-00-22	$7.55	$9.45
5-25-17	$7.45	$9.20
5-25-18	$7.65	$9.50
5-25-19	$7.85	$9.80
5-25-20	$8.10	$10.05
5-25-21	$8.35	$10.40
5-25-18	$8.55	$10.20
5-50-19	$8.75	$10.65
5-50-20	$9.00	$10.95
6-00-20	$9.75	$12.10

HEAVY RED TUBES
89c and Up

For Lawn Chairs, 49c

FENDER LIGHTS
Full chrome finish,
will not tarnish.
Per $2.29

FENDER GUIDES
This is a very useful accessory which enables you to judge
fender clearance easily.
Plain Type 59c Up
Lined Type $1.98

BATTERY AND STARTER CABLES

12c up

Tire and Door
Hinge Mirrors

Clear full view mirror, chrome finish.
Will not tarnish.
79c and up